Classification of Risk Factors:

INTERNAL RISK FACTOR

- The pharmaceutical market is subject to extensive regulation and failures to comply with the existing and future regulatory requirements in any pharmaceutical market could expose us to litigation or other liabilities, which could adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

We operate in a highly regulated industry and our operations are subject to extensive regulation governing the pharmaceutical market. The development, testing, marketing and sale of pharmaceutical products are subject to extensive regulation in India, Dubai, Ethiopia, Ghana, Somalia, Nepal and Zambia where we export our products. We are required to comply with the regulatory requirements of various local, state, provincial and national regulatory authorities, such as the Drugs Controller General of India, Central Drugs Standard Control Organization, State Drugs Controller, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Controlling cum Licensing Authority, and for certain facilities involved in producing products for exports, international regulatory authorities, such as regulatory authorities in the countries where we are exporting our products. We are subject to international and national guidelines and regulations concerning development, testing, equipment and facilities. Further, as we expand our operations and geographic scope, we may be exposed to more complex and newer regulatory and administrative requirements and legal risks, any of which may require expertise in which we have limited experience as well as impose significant compliance costs on us.

These regulatory requirements impact many aspects of our operations, including developing, storage, distribution, import and export and record keeping related to our products. Regulatory agencies may, for instance, delay, limit or deny approval for many reasons, including:

- changes to the regulatory approval process, including new data requirements for product candidates in those jurisdictions in which we or our customers may be seeking approval;
- kits manufacturers constantly should monitor the efficacy and safety of their products throughout the kit life cycle which involves significant regulatory challenges. Any kit during its life cycle can be recalled for safety reasons by the drug regulators;
- resource constraints at the agency resulting in delayed review of submitted information; and manufacturing processes of our Vendor, facilities, systems or personnel may not meet the applicable GMP guidelines.

In addition, we believe applicable regulations have become increasingly stringent and if new legislation or regulations are enacted or existing legislation or regulations are amended or are interpreted or enforced differently, we may be required to obtain additional approvals or operate according to different manufacturing or operating standards. If we fail to comply with applicable regulatory requirements in the future, then we may be subject to show cause notices, warning letters and/or civil or criminal penalties and fines, suspension or withdrawal of regulatory approvals, product recalls, seizure of products, restrictions on the import and export of our products, debarment, exclusion, disgorgement of profits, operating restrictions and criminal prosecution and the loss of contracts and resulting revenue losses.

- We are dependent on certain customers for a portion of our revenues. The loss of any of our major customers due to any adverse development or significant reduction in business from our major customers may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

We have established and will continue to focus on strengthening long-standing relationships with well-known customers across the end-use industries that we cater to. However, we depend on certain customers who have contributed to a substantial portion of our total revenue from operations. Set out below are details in relation to the revenue contribution from our Top 1, 3, 5 and 10 customers for period ended September 30, 2024, and fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022:

* While more than 50% of our revenue from operations originates from our top 10 customers, our Company is unable to disclose the names of these customers due to reasons of confidentiality.

There is no guarantee that we will retain the business of our existing key customers or maintain the current level of business with each of these customers. The loss of these customers or a loss of revenue from sales to these customers may materially affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Any negative developments with these customers, such as disputes or disqualification, could significantly reduce our cash flow and liquidity. If these customers start sourcing their needs from our competitors who offer better quality or lower prices, we could lose a significant portion of our business. Additionally, if any of our customers merge or are acquired, it could disrupt our existing relationships and agreements. If the new owners no longer need our products, it could further impact our business negatively.

3. We rely on suppliers for medical devices and equipment manufacturers for our trading goods, and also face risks in sourcing raw materials and components from third parties for the manufacturing and assembly of our medical equipment. Any disruption in the supply of these goods or materials could adversely impact our business, operations, and financial condition.

We rely on suppliers for a range of traded goods, including medical equipment, surgical instruments, consumables, laboratory reagents, and diagnostic equipment, with whom we typically do not have long-term contracts or exclusive supply agreements. Orders are placed on a requirement basis. Although we have not experienced significant disruptions in sourcing raw materials or components for manufacturing, we face risks related to delays, disruptions, or failures in the supply of these goods. Any failure by our suppliers to meet agreed timelines, whether due to regulatory issues, financial difficulties, or other factors, may lead to delays, increased costs, payment issues, or damage to our reputation, all of which could adversely impact our business, operations, and financial condition.

Any disruption in the supply of raw materials or components, including issues such as facility damage, power outages, labour unrest, or geopolitical events, could cause delays, increased costs, and operational disruptions, further affecting our business and cash flows. If such disruptions occur, we would need to source alternative suppliers, which could lead to additional delays and increased costs, negatively impacting our financial condition.

4. Our Financial Statement as Restated are prepared and signed by the Peer Review Auditor who is not Statutory Auditors of our Company as required under the provisions of ICDR.

The Financial Statement as Restated of our Company for the Stub period ended September 2024 and fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, 2023, 2022 respectively are prepared and signed by M/s Manish Pandey & Associates, Chartered Accountants, and the Peer Review Auditor of our Company who is not statutory auditor of our Company. Our Statutory Auditor M/s. Haribhakti & Co. LLP, Chartered Accountants also possesses a valid peer-reviewed certificate, but due to their existing commitments, the task of providing the Financial Statement as Restated was entrusted to the aforementioned peer-reviewed chartered accountant.

5. The purchase and sale of medical devices and equipment for our trading activities are heavily dependent on related parties.

The purchase and sale of traded goods, including medical equipment, consumables, and laboratory reagents, are significantly influenced by transactions with our wholly owned subsidiary, DR Meditech Surgical and Diagnostics Private Limited, and sales to related parties. For the period ending September 30, 2024, sales to related parties (including gst) accounted for 26.57% of our revenue from operations, while purchases from related parties made up 6.65% of our total purchases. While we believe these transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, it is difficult to determine whether more favorable terms could have been achieved with unrelated parties. Additionally, we anticipate that we may engage in related party transactions in the future. For more details, please refer to the section titled "Related Party Transactions" on page 253 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

6. Customer orders may experience delays, modifications, cancellations, or may not be fully paid, which could negatively impact our business, financial condition, and operational results.

We may face challenges in fulfilling customer orders or in delivering products on time. Additionally, factors beyond our control, or that of our customers, could cause delays or cancellations of product deliveries, including difficulties in obtaining necessary permits, authorizations, or permissions. Due to the possibility of cancellations or changes in the scope and delivery schedule of these orders—whether at the discretion of our customers or due to issues we encounter in product delivery—we cannot guarantee when, if, or to what extent we will be able to fulfill these orders.

Moreover, delays in delivery may lead to customers postponing or refusing payment, either in part or in full, for the products. Even when deliveries are made as scheduled, there is a risk that the contracting parties may default or fail to pay the amounts owed. As of September 30, 2024, our trade receivables stood at Rs. 571.12 Lakhs. While we have not yet faced significant delays, scope reductions, cancellations, execution issues, payment delays, or defaults in relation to customer orders, any such incidents in the future could materially impact our cash flow and income. For more details about our business, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Business" on page 148 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

7. We require sizeable amounts of working capital for our continued operation and growth. Our inability to meet our working capital requirements could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our Company's working capital requirements for the period ended September 30, 2024 amount to ₹ 521.83 lakhs. Further, our working capital requirements for financial year 2024-25, 2025-26 and 2026-27 are estimated at ₹ 704.37 lakhs, ₹ 1,552.31 lakhs and ₹ 2,562.95 lakhs out of which an amount of ₹ 785.95 lakhs will be funded out of the Net Proceeds, whereas the balance, if any, would be arranged from our internal accruals /Equity Reserves. For details of our working capital requirements and estimation, please see "Objects of the Issue" on page 93 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We need a substantial amount of working capital, as a result, we are required to maintain sufficient stock at all times in order to meet manufacturing requirements, thus increasing our storage and working capital requirements.

Further, we are required to finance the purchase orders received through our own sources and are therefore required to maintain a sufficient amount of working capital. Consequently, there could be situations where the total funds available may not be sufficient to fulfil our commitments, and hence we may need to incur additional indebtedness in the future, or utilize internal accruals to satisfy our working capital needs. The actual amount of our future capital requirements may differ from estimates as a result of, among other factors, unforeseen delays or cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, economic conditions, technological changes and additional market developments. Further, our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner. We have not faced any instances of material losses or adverse impact on our business or results of operations due to the failure of obtaining additional financing in the past three financial years and stub period. However, we cannot assure you that we will be able to renew existing funding arrangements or obtain additional financing on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all, to meet our working capital needs. Our inability to do so may adversely affect our expansion plans, business, financial condition and results of operations.

As we pursue our growth plan, we may be required to raise additional funds by incurring further indebtedness or issuing additional equity to meet our working capital in the future. If we decide to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows and we may be subject to additional covenants, which could limit our ability to access cash flows from operations. Any issuance of equity, on the other hand, could result in a dilution of your shareholding. Accordingly, continued increase in our working capital requirements may have an adverse effect on our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. In addition, if we are unable to borrow funds on a timely basis, or, at all, to meet our working capital and other requirements, or to pay our debts, it could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. Management of our working capital requirements involves the timely payment of, or rolling over of, our short- term indebtedness and securing new and additional loans on acceptable terms, or re-negotiation of our payment terms for, our trade payables, collection of trade receivables and preparing and following accurate and feasible budgets for our business operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively manage our working capital. Failure to effectively implement sufficient internal control procedures and management systems to manage our working capital and other sources of financing, we may have insufficient capital to maintain and grow our business, and we may breach the terms of our financing agreements with banks, face claims under cross-default provisions and be unable to obtain new financing, any of which would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further information on the working capital facilities currently availed by us, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 272 of this Draft Red Hearing Prospectus.

8. Quality problems and product liability claims could lead to recalls or safety alerts, reputational harm, adverse verdicts or costly settlements, and could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Quality is extremely important to us and our customers due to the impact on patients or due to the serious and potentially costly consequences of product failure. Our business exposes us to potential product liability risks that are inherent in the manufacturing, marketing and use of our products. In addition, some of our products are used in surgical and post-surgical care, with many of our products often used in intensive care settings with seriously ill patients. Component failures, manufacturing nonconformance, unknown safety, efficacy concerns, unknown side effects, design defects, off-label use, or inadequate disclosure of product-related risks or product-related information with respect to our products, if they were to occur, could result in directly or indirectly, personal injuries or other adverse effects. If any of the aforementioned events were to occur, we may be required to recall and terminate sales of our products. We are exposed to product liability claims in the ordinary course of business. A product liability claim could require us to pay substantial damages. Product liability claims against us, whether successful, are costly and time-consuming to defend. Furthermore, concerns of potential side effects could arise among consumers or medical professionals, and such concerns, whether justified or not, could expose us to negative publicity and have a diverse effect on sales of our products and our reputation.

9. Our business is dependent on our manufacturing facilities and assembly units. Obsolescence, destruction, theft, breakdowns of our machineries or failures to repair or maintain the same may affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

We have one manufacturing unit located at G-1, Sector- 11 Noida, Distt.- Gautam Budh Nagar Uttar Pradesh. Our business is dependent upon our ability to manage our manufacturing and assembly facilities, which are subject to various operating risks, including those beyond our control, such as the breakdown and failure of equipment or industrial accidents and severe weather conditions and natural disasters. Any significant malfunction or breakdown of our machinery may entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. If we are unable to repair breakdown of machinery in a timely manner or at all, our operations may need to be suspended until we procure new machinery to replace the same. In addition, we may be required to carry out planned shutdowns of our facilities for cleaning and maintenance, statutory inspections and testing, or may shut down certain facilities for capacity expansion and equipment upgrades.

Obsolescence, destruction, theft or breakdowns of our machineries may significantly increase our machineries purchase cost and the depreciation of our plants and machineries, as well as change the way our management estimates the useful life of our plants and machineries. In such cases, we may not be able to acquire new plants or machineries or repair the damaged plants or machineries in time or at all. Some of our major machineries or parts may be costly to replace or repair. We may experience significant price increases due to supply shortages, inflation, transportation difficulties or unavailability. Such obsolescence, destruction, theft, breakdowns, repair or maintenance failures or price increases may not be adequately covered by the insurance policies availed by our Company and may have an effect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations

10. We rely on limited suppliers for our products, loss of these suppliers may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial conditions.

We are reliant on a limited number of suppliers for the supply of finished pharmaceutical formulations for our operations. The table below sets out the raw materials which we have obtained from our largest supplier, top 5 suppliers and top 10 suppliers together with such supply as a percentage of our total raw materials supply for the period ended September 30, 2024, and financial years ended on March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022 are as under;

We may be unable to source our raw materials from alternative suppliers on similar commercial terms or within a reasonable timeframe. This may adversely impact our production and eventually our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

11. Our Company has reported negative cash flows in the recent period. Negative cash flows in the future could adversely affect our results of our operations and financial condition.

12. Delay in registration of Products in multiple geographical locations across the world may affect our revenue generation and overall financial performance.

One of the key issue is to secure the registration of our various products in multiple geographical locations across the world. The product registration process varies significantly from country to country, as it is governed by the respective regulatory authorities in each jurisdiction. These processes can be complex, lengthy, and time-consuming, with no standardized or guaranteed timeframe for approval provided by the respective health authorities.

Given the variability and unpredictability of the regulatory processes in different regions, there is a risk that we may not be able to obtain the necessary approvals for our future products in a timely manner. This delay in product registration could impact our ability to launch products as planned, thereby potentially affecting our revenue generation and overall financial performance.

13. Our products have Shelf-Life, any inability on our part to deliver our products at the right time in the markets could have a material adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

We are engaged in to dealing in Medical Devices, and Medical Consumables and same has certain validity before which the same needs to be used and consumed. Hence, we have to ensure that right quantity and quality of our products reach to the consumer in a timely manner. Any interruption in supply of our products to the various markets, due to any reason including those not within our control, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operation and financial condition. In particular, if our warehouse facility were to be disrupted as a result of any significant workplace accident, natural disaster, power outage, fire, explosion, terrorism, adverse weather conditions, labour dispute, obsolescence or other reasons, our financial performance may be adversely affected as a result of our inability to meet customer demand or committed delivery schedules for our products.

14. We do not own the premises of our Registered, Industrial Premises and Godowns.

We do not own our Registered, Industrial Premises and Godown, which are occupied by us on a leasehold basis. While the lease agreements for our registered office and Industrial premises are long term in nature and provide us with an option to renew them by mutual consent of both parties, they also provide the lessor with the right to terminate the lease for non-compliance of the terms of the agreement or by serving a without cause termination notice. Termination of our leases may occur for reasons beyond our control, such as breaches of lease agreements by the landlords of our premises which is detrimental to our operations. If these agreements are terminated or revoked for any reason or if we are unable to renew these agreements on commercially reasonable terms or at all, we may suffer significant disruptions to our operations and incur considerable costs to relocate and move our operations elsewhere. In the event we are required to vacate the premises, we may need to do with short or no notice. Any inability on our part to timely identify a suit able location could have an adverse impact on our business. For further details, please see chapters titled “Our Business” at page 148.

15. Our Company has allotted Equity Shares during the preceding one year from the date of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus which may be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Company has made the following allotment of fresh Equity Shares to the members of our Company during past 12 months prior to the date of filing of Draft Red Herring Prospectus:

- Issue of shares of 4,58,385 Equity Shares at issue price of Rs. 125/- vide a share purchase agreement (SPA) dated August 08, 2023, has purchased a total of 334,999 equity shares of Rs. 10 each fully paid up in D R Meditech Surgical and Diagnostics (India) Private Limited (99.99% holding) from its shareholders Mr. Dharam Deo Chaudhary (242,499 equity shares) and Mr. Ram Nagina Chaudhary (92,500 equity shares) (cumulatively referred as “Sellers”). In terms of the SPA for payment consideration, the Company issued 4,58,385 equity shares to the Sellers.
- Preferential Allotment of 2,88,371 Equity Shares vide Shareholders Resolution passed in Extra-Ordinary General Meeting of the Company held on August 03, 2024. The Equity Shares allotted to the investors pursuant to this issue may be priced significantly higher due to various factors including better performance by the Company, better economic conditions and passage of time. For details, please refer to section titled “Capital Structure” on page 80 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The Issue Price is not indicative of the price that will prevail in the open market following listing of the Equity Shares.

16. Certain of our Promoters, Directors, and Subsidiary are in businesses similar to ours and have interests in certain companies, which are in similar businesses to ours, and this may result in potential conflict of interest with us.

A potential conflict of interest may occur between our Promoters, Directors and wholly owned Subsidiary that may have interest in companies, or may be entities, which are in the similar line of business as our Company. For example, (i) Imperative Healthcare Private Limited, (ii) Ayush Diagnostics & Surgicals proprietary concern of one of our promoter and Director and (iii) Biocorn Healthcare which are in the proprietary concern of one of our promoter Group same line of activity or business as our Company. For further information, see “History and Certain Corporate Matters on page 221. For further details in relation to legal proceedings involving our Company, Promoters, Directors and Group Company, kindly refer the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” on page 276 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

18. Restrictions on import and an increase in shipment cost may adversely impact our business, cash flows and results of operations.

Most of the products, raw materials and components required in our manufacturing and assembly line process are imported. During the period ended September 2024 and the Fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022 the import purchases accounted for 5.81%, 5.31%, 0.57%, and 9.50% of total purchases in the respective years. The import is regulated by the various regulatory requirements, which empowers the relevant authority to undertake any measures that it deems fit, particularly in relation to medical equipments, parts, components and disposables to be imported. Such measures include denying approval for import of such products. There can be no assurance that such regulations will not become more stringent in the future, which could potentially restrict our ability to import from other jurisdictions. Historically, we have been dependent on import from countries like: China, Hong Kong and USA etc While our imports from such jurisdictions are not currently subject to any regulatory ban or restriction, there can be no assurance that such regulations will not evolve into more stringent regulations, which would place onerous requirements on us and consequently restrict our ability to import. There can also be no assurance that, under these circumstances, we will be successful in identifying alternate suppliers or we will be able to source such products, raw materials or components domestically at favourable terms in a timely manner. While we have not in the past experienced any significant challenge in importing products, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such challenges in the future

19. Our success depends on stable and reliable logistics and transportation infrastructure. Disruption of logistics and transportation services could impair the ability of our suppliers to deliver raw materials or our ability to deliver products to our customers and/ or increase our transportation costs, which may adversely affect our operations.

We rely on third-party transportation services for the movement of raw materials and products to and from our suppliers and customers, using both road and freight ships for transportation. This mode of transportation carries inherent risks, including accidents such as collisions and groundings, as well as natural hazards like storms, fires, explosions, and lightning. Additionally, external factors like political instability, berth availability for cargo ships, and restrictions arising from events may cause delays or disruptions. Such interruptions could impact our ability to procure raw materials or meet product delivery schedules efficiently. To mitigate these risks and ensure timely delivery, we may need to maintain a higher level of raw material inventory, which could increase our costs.

20. There are certain instances of delays in payment of statutory dues by us. Any further delays in payment of statutory dues may attract financial penalties from the respective government authorities and in turn may have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and cash flows.

Our company has experienced instances where we have delayed filing Income Tax returns, TDS returns GST returns, EPF returns, and ESIC returns, resulting in the imposition of late filing fees and interest on delayed payments. While the current fees and interest incurred have been manageable, continued practices of delay could cumulatively impact our cash flows adversely.

Brief details of delay in submission of statutory returns and amount are as below:

To date, no show cause notice has been issued against our company concerning these matters. However, we cannot assure that such notices will not be issued in the future. If the authorities take notice of these delays, actions may be initiated against our company and its directors, potentially affecting our financial standing. We acknowledge the possibility of penalties being imposed in such scenarios.

As a corrective measure, our company has appointed a compliance officer to oversee real-time management of all compliance-related matters. Additionally, we have reinforced our internal controls to promptly address any procedural shortcomings.

21. There are certain discrepancies and non-compliances noticed in some of our financial reporting and/or records relating to financial statements of our company. Although we have not been served with any notice with respect to the same and we cannot assure that no penal action shall be taken against us.

There are certain discrepancies and non-compliances noticed in some of our financial reporting and/or records relating to financial statements of our company:

1. The company has reported incorrect details of the Auditor while filing the financial statement and other documents with the Registrar in e-Form AOC-4 for financial year 2021-22.

2. The company issued share certificates to subscribers to the Memorandum of Association (MOA) prior to the actual receipt of payment for the shares. This practice, observed during the inaugural board meeting convened on December 26, 2019. Notably, this action contradicts the provisions outlined in Section 10A(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013, and Rule 23A of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014, where Form INC-20A was filed on April 22, 2020, to validate the commencement of business operations and substantiate the credit of the subscription amount into the company's bank account on March 9, 2020, January 10, 2020, and January 22, 2020, by Mr. Janardan Pal, Mr. Dharam Deo Choudhary, and Mr. Ram Nagina Choudhary, respectively. These instances indicate a concerning practice where the company issues share certificates to subscribers of the Memorandum of Association (MOA) prior to the actual receipt of payment. Such actions potentially contravene legal and regulatory requirements, including provisions stipulated in the Companies Act, 2013, and associated rules.

Although no cognizance has been taken by the authority in the above matters till date and no notice in respect of same have been served by the concerned authorities till date, we are not sure that no such notice shall be issued in future or at all and in any such event we may be subjected to a penalty. However, if any action is taken by the concerned authority in the matter and in the event of any penalty being imposed against the Company by the concerned authority, the financials of the company shall be adversely affected.

22. Certain delays and discrepancies have been detected in our statutory records, as well as in records related to the submission of returns and statutory expenses to the concerned Registrar of Companies.

The Company has generally complied with the statutory provisions, however, there are the following discrepancies in the forms filed by the company with the Registrar of Companies under provisions of Companies Act, 2013:

- a) Delayed submission of E-Form MGT 14 for Filing of Resolutions and agreements to the Registrar pursuant to Companies Act, 2013. The Company has paid the additional fees under Companies Act, 2013 for filing the said form.
- b) Delayed submission of E-Form AOC 4 for Annual Financial Statements pursuant to Companies Act, 2013 for the financial year 2021-22. The Company has paid the additional fees under Companies Act, 2013 for filing the said form.
- c) Delayed submission of E-Form ADT-1 for Information to the Registrar by Company for appointment of Auditor in an event of casual vacancy pursuant to Companies Act, 2013. The Company has paid the additional fees under Companies Act, 2013 for filing the said form.
- d) Delayed submission of E-Form ADT-1 for Information to the Registrar by Company for appointment of Auditor pursuant to Companies Act, 2013. The Company has paid the additional fees under Companies Act, 2013.

There is no action taken by any regulatory authority yet but there may be instances in future where notices may be issued upon our Company and fines or penalties may also be imposed upon our Company, which may adversely affect our administration from compliance perspective. There can be no assurance that no penal action will be taken against us by the regulatory authorities with respect to the non-compliances. If any adverse actions are taken against us, our financial results could be affected.

In the event the Company fails to submit the requisite disclosures to the regulator in the future, then the Company may be penalised by the regulators and the same may affect our results of operations.

23. Our expansion plan relating to installation of additional plant and machinery and construction of building is subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns.

We plan to utilize the Net Proceeds for part finances the capital expenditure towards setting up of a new manufacturing unit at industrial plot no. 70, Sector 28 in the Medical Device Park under the Yamuna Expressway Industrial Development Authority (YEIDA), Gautam Buddha Nagar, Uttar Pradesh and funding the working capital requirement of the Company. For further details, please refer to the "Objects of the Issue" section on page 93 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. However, our expansion plans are subject to various potential challenges and uncertainties, including cost overruns or delays. Factors that could negatively impact our plans include labour shortages, unforeseen regulatory restrictions, increased pre-operating expenses, taxes and duties, interest and finance charges, working capital requirements, and other external elements beyond our control. There is no guarantee that the planned capital expenditure for the installation of additional plant and machinery will be completed as scheduled. Any delays or failure to complete the installations on time may result in budget shortfalls, and if our actual capital expenditures exceed our estimates, we may not realize the anticipated economic benefits. This could materially and adversely affect our financial position, operational performance, cash flows, and future prospects. Furthermore, we cannot assure that the expansion will proceed according to the proposed timeline, and any delays could negatively impact our growth, prospects, cash flows, and financial condition.

24. The products that we commercialize may not perform as expected which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our success depends significantly on our ability to commercialize new medical products in India and across various markets around the world. Commercialization requires us to successfully develop, test and obtain the required regulatory approvals for our products, while complying with applicable regulatory and safety standards. In order to develop a commercially viable product, we must demonstrate, through extensive clinical trials that the products are safe and effective for use in humans. Our products currently under development, if and when fully developed and tested, may not perform as we expect, necessary regulatory approvals may not be obtained in a timely manner, if at all, and we may not be able to successfully and profitably produce and market such products.

Furthermore, even if we are successful in developing a new product, that product may become subject to litigation by third parties claiming our products infringe on their patents or may be seized in-transit by regulatory authorities for alleged infringement of intellectual property or may be otherwise unsuccessful in the marketplace due to the introduction of superior products by competitors. Moreover, it may take an extended period for our new products to gain market acceptance, if at all.

25. Our inability to maintain an optimal level of Stock for our business may impact our operations adversely.

Our daily operations largely depend on consistent Stock control which is generally dependent on our projected sales in different months of the year. It also largely depends on the forecast and trends for the forthcoming season. An optimal level of Stock is important to our business as it allows us to respond to customer demand effectively and to maintain a range of stock. If we overstock, our required working capital will increase and if we under-stock inventory, our ability to meet consumer demand and our operating results may be adversely affected. Any mismatch between our planning and the actual off take by customers can impact us adversely.

26. Non-compliance with and changes in, safety, health, environmental and labour laws and other applicable regulations, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition

We are subject to laws and government regulations, including in relation to safety, health, environmental protection and labour. These laws and regulations impose controls on air and water discharge, noise levels, storage handling, and other aspects of our manufacturing operations. Further, our products, including the process of manufacture, storage and distribution of such products, are subject to numerous laws and regulations in relation to quality, safety and health. For details on regulations and policies applicable to our business, see “Key Industry Regulations and Policies” on page 210. Any accident at our facilities may result in personal injury or loss of life, substantial damage to or destruction of property and equipment resulting in the suspension of operations. In particular, the environmental approvals obtained for our manufacturing facilities prescribe certain conditions, including limits on a facility’s aggregate production output, the output of specific products and effluent discharge amounts. Any failure to comply with such conditions could result in revocation of the licenses and lead to shut down of our facilities. Any of the foregoing could subject us to litigation, which could lower our profits in the event we were found liable and could also adversely affect our reputation. Additionally, the government or the relevant regulatory bodies may require us to shut down our manufacturing plants, which in turn could lead to product shortages that delay or prevent us from fulfilling our obligations to end customers. We are also subject to the laws and regulations governing employees, including in relation to minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and termination of employees, and work permits. We have incurred and expect to continue incurring costs for compliance with such laws and regulations. We have also made and expect to continue making capital expenditures on an on-going basis to comply with all applicable environmental, health and safety and labour laws and regulations. These laws and regulations have, however, become increasingly stringent and it is possible that they will become significantly more stringent in the future. We cannot assure you that we will not be found to be non-compliant with, or remain in compliance with all applicable environmental, health and safety and labour laws and regulations or the terms and conditions of any consents or permits in the future or that such compliance will not result in abatement of production or a material increase in the costs of production.

27. We rely on professional staff to be appointed by the company for the Research and Development Activities.

One of our future plans is to establish a Research and Development (R&D) Center within our company. However, at this stage, we have not yet identified or secured a qualified and legitimate team to lead and conduct the R&D activities necessary for the development of our future products. These products are intended to be manufactured and marketed under our brand. The absence of a fully formed and experienced R&D team may pose a significant risk to our ability to innovate and successfully bring new products to market, potentially affecting our competitive position and overall business growth.

28. We are required to obtain, renew or maintain certain statutory and regulatory permits and approvals required to operate our business and if we fail to do so in a timely manner or at all and our business, financial conditions, results of operations, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

We require certain statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations and approvals to operate our business, some of which our Company has either received, applied for or is in the process of application. Many of these approvals are granted for fixed periods of time and need renewal from time to time. Non-renewal of the said permits and licenses would adversely affect our operations, thereby having a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will renew such licenses, registrations and approvals in a timely manner or at all.

Further, these licenses, registrations and approvals are subject to several conditions, and we cannot assure that we will be able to continuously meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to statutory authorities, and this may lead to cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant licenses, approvals and registrations. Failure by us to renew, maintain or obtain the required licenses or approvals, or cancellation, suspension, or revocation of any of the licenses, approvals and registrations may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details of the approvals yet to be obtained by us, and please see the chapter titled “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” beginning on page 281.

29. Our operations are concentrated in a geographic area, Delhi NCR. As a result, any localized social unrest, natural disasters, or similar events could have a significant adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

Our business operates primarily in the Delhi NCR region. Consequently, any localized social unrest, natural disasters, disruptions, or breakdowns of services and utilities in this area could have a significant adverse impact on our operations, financial position, and results. Additionally, the continued influx of similar industries or competitors in this region, without corresponding growth in infrastructure, may strain existing facilities and intensify competition, potentially affecting our business and operational outcomes.

30. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees to secure certain of our fund facilities, which if revoked or invoked may require alternative guarantees, repayment of amounts due or termination of the facilities.

Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees and mortgaged certain of their immovable properties in relation to certain of our fund and non-fund based facilities and may continue to provide such guarantees after the listing of the Equity Shares pursuant to the Issue. In the event that any of these guarantees are revoked or invoked, the lenders for such facilities may require alternate guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or may even terminate such facilities, as applicable. We may not be successful in procuring alternative guarantees satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result, may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which may not be available on acceptable terms or at all. Any such failure to raise additional capital could adversely affect our operations and our financial condition. For further details, kindly refer chapter titles “Financial Statement as Restated” on Page 255 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

31. We also sell our products through network of distributors and dealers and any inability to expand or effectively manage our growing distribution and sales network may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition to direct sales of our products to end user customers, we also have an extensive sales and distribution network. We are dependent on our channel partners for the distribution of our products. Our ability to expand and grow our product reach significantly depends on the reach and effective management of our distribution network. We continuously seek to increase the penetration of our products by appointing new distributors targeted at different markets and geographies. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully identify and appoint new distributors or effectively manage our existing distribution network. If the terms offered to such distributors by our competitors are more favourable than those offered by us, distributors may decline to distribute our products and terminate their arrangements with us.

32. Our international operations expose us to complex management, legal, tax and economic risks, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, we are required to comply with the applicable regulations of the markets where we export our products as well as obtain registrations to enable export of our products to other jurisdictions.

We generate part of our total revenue from our international markets, primarily the Dubai, Ethiopia, Ghana, Somalia, Zambia and Nepal. As a result, we are subject to risks related to our international expansion strategy, including those related to complying with a wide variety of local laws and restrictions on the import and export of our products.

Further, we may face competition in other countries from companies that may have more experience with operations in such countries or with international operations generally. We may also face difficulties in introducing new products in different countries into our existing operations. If we do not effectively manage our international operations, it may affect our profitability from such countries, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Currently, we exported our products to over 6 countries which are governed by their respective laws and require us to obtain approvals or registrations from their respective relevant authorities, as may be applicable. The table sets out details of our revenue from exports, and such exports as a percentage of revenue from operations for the periods indicated below:

Amount in ₹ lakhs except %

Customers	For the period ended	For the financial years ended on
	30-Sept-24	31-Mar-24	31-Mar-23	31-Mar-22
Revenue from exports	181.81	59.18%	-	-
As a percentage of revenue from operations	13.34%	3.64%	-	-

Our Company, along with other distributors and our P2P partners undertake exports by registering our products with the respective regulatory authority. Each applicable authority may impose its own requirements and / or delay or refuse to grant registration, even when a product has already been approved in another country. Even after we obtain all the requisite regulatory or governmental pre-approvals and registrations, our products may be subject to other continual governmental oversight in connection with, among other things, quality control. In addition, after a period of time, in certain countries, the products are re-evaluated for their continued use and additional data may be required in relation to their safety aspects, which may become more stringent. If we are unable to do so in a cost effective and timely manner, it would restrict our ability to sell our products in the relevant markets, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition, our international operations are subject to risks that are specific to each country and region in which we operate, as well as risks associated with international operations, in general. Any developments in the pharmaceutical industry or the industries in which our customers operate could have an impact on our sales from exports. From time to time, tariffs, quotas and other tariff and non-tariff trade barriers may be imposed on our products in jurisdictions in which we operate or seek to sell our products.

33. Brand recognition is important to the success of our business, and our inability to build and maintain our brand names will harm our business, financial condition, and results of operation.

Brand recognition is important to the success of our business. Establishing and maintaining our brand name in the industry or for people relying on services is critical to the success of the customer acquisition process of our business. Although, we expect to allocate significant number of resources, financial and otherwise, on establishing and maintaining our brands, no assurance can be given that our brand names will be effective in attracting and growing user and client base for our businesses or that such efforts will be cost-effective, which may negatively affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

34. After conversion of Company into public limited we are required to update the name of our company in some of the statutory approvals, certificates, licenses and registrations due to the change of Status of our Company.

Our Company was originally incorporated as Avience Biomedicals Private Limited under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 vide certificate of incorporation dated December 23, 2019. Subsequently, the Company was converted into a Public Limited Company pursuant to Shareholders Resolution passed at the Extra Ordinary General Meeting of the Company held on June 26, 2024. The name of our Company was changed from “Avience Biomedicals Private Limited” to “Avience Biomedicals Limited” vide a fresh Certificate of Incorporation dated September 03, 2024 having CIN U74999DL2019PLC359158 issued by the Registrar of Companies, Central Processing Centre. Our Company is in the process of change in name of some of the statutory approvals, certificates, licenses and registrations due to the change of Status of our Company. We cannot ensure that we will be able to update the said documents in a timely manner.

For further details of the outstanding litigation proceedings, see “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” beginning on page 281 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

35. We engage contract labour for carrying out certain functions of the business operations.

We engage independent contractors through whom we engage contract labour for performance of certain functions at our manufacturing facilities. Although we do not engage these labourers directly, we are responsible for any wage payments to be made to such labourers in the event of default by such independent contractors. All contract labourers engaged at our manufacturing facilities are assured minimum wages that are fixed by the state government from time to time. Any upward revision of wages that may be required by the state government to be paid to such contract labourers, or offer of permanent employment or the unavailability of the required number of contract labourers, may adversely affect the business and future results of our operations. any adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

36. If our Company is unable to protect its intellectual property, or if our Company infringes on the intellectual property rights of others, our business may be adversely affected.

Currently, our company uses the logo   AvienBio which is registered under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. However, if other vendors in our industry use a similar trademark or copyright, we may face challenges in enforcing our rights and protecting our brand. In the event of opposition from third parties or if any injunctive or adverse orders are issued against us concerning our trademark or copyright, we might be unable to use or safeguard these intellectual properties effectively. This could result in unauthorized use by others, potentially harming our goodwill and business. Additionally, we might struggle to detect or address unauthorized use or infringement in a timely manner, which could further impact our business prospects. If we cannot adequately protect our trademark or copyright, it may adversely affect our revenue and profitability.

37. We do not have long term contracts or exclusive arrangements with any of our suppliers, and a significant increase in the cost of, or a shortfall in the availability, or deterioration in the quality, of such input materials could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

We do not have long term contracts or exclusive arrangements with any of our suppliers, and any major disruption to the timely and adequate supplies of our raw materials for any of our segments exposes us to volatility in the prices of raw materials and could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. The availability of these raw materials and components is dependent on the global supply chain and their shortages can be caused by, among other things, variations in the supply of quality material, import duties, currency exchange rates, natural disasters, changing economic conditions, or other geographic and political events. For instance, the shortage of labour, local and international restrictions impacting the transport and logistics arising due to pandemic like COVID-19 contributed to a bottleneck in supply chain system in the industry which may occur in future. Prices of oil and gas also affect our distribution and transportation costs.

38. Our Promoters play key role in our functioning and we heavily rely on their knowledge and experience in operating our business and therefore, it is critical for our business that our promoters remain associated with us.

We benefit from our relationship with our Promoters and our success depends upon the continuing services of our Promoters who have been responsible for the growth of our business and is closely involved in the overall strategy, direction and management of our business. Our Promoters have been actively involved in the day to day operations and management. Accordingly, our performance is heavily dependent upon the services of our Promoters. If our Promoter is unable or unwilling to continue in his present position, we may not be able to replace them easily or at all. Further, we rely on the continued services and performance of our key executives and senior management for continued success and smooth functioning of the operations of the Company. If we lose the services of any of our key managerial personnel, we may be unable to locate suitable or qualified replacement and may incur additional expenses to recruit and train new personnel, which could adversely affect our business operations and affect our ability to continue to manage and expand our business. Our Promoters have over the years-built relations with various customers and other persons who are form part of our stakeholders and are connected with us. The loss of their services could impair our ability to implement our strategy, and our business, financial condition, results of operations and it may be materially and adversely affected.

39. Our success depends significantly on our Promoters, and Key Management Personnel The loss of their services may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our success depends significantly on the ongoing commitment of our Promoters, and Key Managerial Personnel. The Company's Board comprises a strong team of qualified professionals, making our Key Managerial Personnel crucial for day-to-day operations. Losing any of our Promoter, and Key Management Personnel facing challenges in finding suitable replacements, could negatively impact us. The absence of our Promoters, and KMPs services might hinder our ability to efficiently manage and expand the business. If we struggle to retain skilled employees at reasonable costs, executing our growth strategy may become challenging. Refer to the sections "Our Promoter" and "Our Management" on pages 243 and 228 respectively.

40. We face competition from organized and unorganized competitors and our inability to compete effectively may have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We face competition in our business based on pricing, relationships with customers and product quality. We face pricing pressures from companies, that are able to manufacture and make available such products at competitive costs and consequently, may supply their products at cheaper prices. We are unable to assure you that we shall be able to meet the pricing pressures imposed by such domestic or multinational competitors which would adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, some of our competitors may have greater financial, research and technological resources, larger sales and marketing teams and more established reputation. They may also be in a better position to identify market trends, adapt to changes in industry, innovate and develop new products, offer competitive prices due to economies of scale and also ensure product quality and compliance.

41. We face competition and may not be able to keep pace with the rapid technological changes in the industry.

The healthcare and medical consumable market is competitive and is characterized by rapid technological change. Our customers consider many factors when choosing suppliers, including product reliability, clinical outcomes, breadth of product portfolio, price and product services provided by the manufacturer, product availability and market share can shift as a result of technological innovation and other business factors. Major shifts in industry market share have occurred in connection with product problems, physician advisories and safety alerts, reflecting the importance of product quality in the medical health product industry, and any quality problems with our processes, goods and services could harm our reputation and erode our competitive advantage, sales and market share. Our competition varies by market, geographic areas and type of product.

We compete on the basis of our ability to fulfil our obligations for the secured orders including the quality and the timely delivery of the products. Our competitors may have substantially greater financial, management, research and marketing resources than we have as a result of which they may be able to utilise their resources and economies of scale to develop improved products, divert sales away from us by winning larger orders or they may hire our employees by offering more lucrative compensation packages. Increased competition may also lead to product price erosion as new companies enter the market or modify their existing products to compete directly with us or advanced technologies emerge. Growing competition in the domestic and/or international markets may subject us to pricing pressures and require us to reduce the prices of our products in order to retain or attract customers, which may have an adverse effect on our revenues and margins.

42. We face foreign exchange risk, which may negatively affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

For the Stub period ended September 30, 2024 and For the financial year ended March 31, 2024, our revenue from operation from export is ₹ 181.81/- lakhs and ₹ 59.18/- lakhs and, which is amounting to 13.34% and 3.64% of revenue from operations. Changes in value of currencies with respect to the Rupee may cause fluctuations in our operating results expressed in Rupees. The exchange rate between the Rupee and other currencies is variable and may continue to fluctuate in future. Any adverse or unforeseen fluctuations with respect to the unhedged exchange rate of any foreign currency for Indian Rupees may affect our Company's results of operations. We are not involved in the hedging of foreign currency which would result in losses and gains resulting from translation of foreign currency denomination on our financials.

We have exposure to foreign exchange related risks since a portion of our revenue from operations are in foreign currency, including the US Dollar. The exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies, primarily the USD, has fluctuated in the past and our results of operations have been impacted by such fluctuations in the past and may be impacted by such fluctuations in the future. While we seek to pass on all losses on account of foreign currency fluctuations to our customers, our ability to foresee future foreign currency fluctuations is limited. Further, due to the time gap between the accounting of purchases and actual payments, the foreign exchange rate at which the purchase is recorded in the books of accounts may vary with the foreign exchange rate at which the payment is made, thereby benefiting or affecting us negatively, depending on the appreciation or depreciation of the Rupee. We may, therefore, be exposed to risks arising from exchange rate fluctuations and we may not be able to pass on all losses on account of foreign currency fluctuations to our customers, and as a result, suffer losses on account of foreign currency rate fluctuations. There is no guarantee that we may be able to manage our foreign currency risk effectively or mitigate exchange exposures, at all times and our inability may harm our results of operations and cause our results to fluctuate and/or decline. Further, certain markets in which we sell our products may be subject to foreign exchange repatriation and exchange control risks, which may result in either delayed recovery or even non-realization of revenue. Further, we have not entered into any hedging arrangements, such as, forward exchange contracts. Accordingly, any action that we may take and any amounts that we spend or invest in order to hedge the risks to our business due to fluctuations in currencies may not adequately hedge against any losses and we cannot assure you of the sufficiency of these procedures or whether the procedures we have in place will be successful in managing our foreign currency exposure.

In addition, the policies of the RBI may also change from time to time, which may limit our ability to effectively hedge our foreign currency exposures. If our foreign currency risk management procedures prove to be inadequate, our results of operation, cash flows, liquidity and financial condition may be adversely affected.

43. We have been recently converted into public limited company and any non-compliance with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 may attract penalties against our Company which could impact our financial and operational performance and reputation.

Our Company has been incorporated as a private limited company pursuant to the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and recently converted into a public limited company pursuant to special resolution passed at the Extra Ordinary General Meeting. Prior to conversion, the provisions pertaining to public limited companies of the Companies Act, 2013 were not applicable to us. However, consequent to the aforesaid conversion, our Company is required to observe compliance with various provisions pertaining to public limited companies of the Companies Act 2013. Further, our Company needs to additionally comply with provisions of SEBI ICDR Regulations and SEBI (LODR) Regulations. Though our Company will take due care to comply with the provisions of the Companies Act and other applicable laws and regulations. In case of our inability to timely comply with the requirements or in case of any delay, we may be subject to penal action from the concerned authorities which may have an adverse effect on our financial and operational performance and reputation.

44. Our insurance coverage may not adequately protect us against all losses or the insurance cover may not be available for all the losses depending on the insurance policy, which could adversely affect business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our operations are subject to various risks inherent to the pharmaceutical industry and to the sale and maintaining inventory of products, as well as other risks such as theft, robbery and other force majeure events. We maintain insurance coverage for anticipated risks which are standard for our type of business and operations. While we maintain insurance coverage in amounts that we believe are consistent with industry norms and would be adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business, our insurance policies do not cover all risks and are subject to exclusions and deductibles. In particular, we do not have insurance coverage for liabilities and expenses arising from product recalls. In addition, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honored fully, in part or at all, or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our potential losses. During period ended September 30, 2024 and Fiscal 2024, Fiscal 2023, and Fiscal 2022, we have not faced any such instances of insurance claims not being honored or insufficient insurance coverage that materially affected our business, financial condition or results of operations.

45. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and we may continue to do so in the future.

We have in the past entered into below mentioned related party transactions with our Promoter, Directors and Key Managerial Personnels, Subsidiaries etc. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled - "Financial Statements as Restated" at page 255. While we assert that all our related party transactions have been conducted at arm's length, and we confirm compliance with relevant provisions of the Companies Act and other applicable laws, we cannot guarantee that we might not have secured more favourable terms if these transactions had involved unrelated parties.

It is likely that our Company may enter into related party transactions in the future. Such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest. We cannot assure you that such transaction, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our Company and/or that it will not have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

46. Any failure to comply with financial and other restrictive covenants imposed on us under our financing agreements may affect our operational flexibility, business, results of operations and prospects.

Based on Restated Standalone Financial Statements, as of September 30, 2024, the total outstanding borrowings ₹ 1,024.23 lakhs.

The agreements with respect to our borrowings contain restrictive covenants, including, but not limited to, requirements that we obtain consent from our lenders prior to undertaking certain matters including, among others, formulation of Scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, Undertake any new project of expansion and diversification change in the management set-up of our Company. For details, see “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 272 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

While, as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we have complied with all covenants and obtained all requisite consents from our lenders for undertaking the Offer, there can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with the financial or other covenants prescribed under the documentation for our financing arrangements or that we will be able to obtain consents necessary to take the actions that may be required to operate and grow our business in the future. Further, if we fail to service our debt obligations, the lenders have the right to enforce the security created in respect of our secured borrowings. A default under certain of our financing agreements may also result in cross-defaults under other financing agreements and result in the outstanding amounts under such other financing agreements becoming due and payable immediately. If the lenders choose to enforce security and dispose our assets to recover the amounts due from us, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Any failure to comply with the conditions and covenants in our financing agreements or the creation of additional encumbrances that is not waived by our lenders or guarantors or otherwise cured or occurrence of a material adverse event could lead to an event of default and consequent termination of our credit facilities or acceleration of amounts due under such facilities could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

47. Our ability to maintain our competitive position and to implement our business strategy is dependent to significant extent on our senior management team and other key personnel, in particular, our Promoters.

We depend on our current senior management for the implementation of our strategy and the operation of our day-to-day activities. Furthermore, relationships of members of senior management are important to the conduct of our business. Competition for experienced management personnel in the business sectors we operate in is intense, the pool of qualified candidates is limited, and we may not be able to retain our senior executives or key personnel or attract and retain skilled senior executives or key personnel in the future. Consequently, there can be no assurance that these individuals will continue to make their services available to us in the future. Any significant loss of senior management or key personnel could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. In addition, if any member of our senior management team or any of our other key personnel joins a competitor or forms a competing business unit, we may consequently lose our proprietary know-how for the benefit of our competitors. Our success depends heavily upon the continuing services of our Promoter who has been the leader since our inception. Our Promoters currently serves as our Managing Director and Whole-time Director and their experience and vision have played a key role in obtaining our current market position. If our Promoters are unable or unwilling to continue to serve in their present position, we may not be able to replace them with an executives of similar capacity or at all, and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

48. Our Promoters and Directors have interest in our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or remuneration.

Our Promoters and Directors can be deemed to be interested to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them, or their relatives, dividend entitlement in our Company, and benefits deriving from the directorship in our Company. Our Promoter are interested in the transactions entered into our Company and our Promoter Group. For further information, please refer to the chapters/section titled “Our Business”, “Our Promoter”, “Our Promoter Group” and Related Party Transaction Notes under “Financial Statements as Restated” Chapter beginning on pages 148, 243, 247 and 255 respectively.

49. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group have significant control over the Company and have the ability to direct our business and affairs; their interests may conflict with your interests as a shareholder.

As of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Promoters and Promoter Group holds 92.85% pre-issue share capital of our Company. Furthermore, after the completion of this Issue, our Promoters and Promoter Group will control, directly or indirectly our Company and continue to hold substantial percentage of the issued and paid-up equity share capital of our Company. As a result, our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to exercise significant control over us, including being able to control the composition of our Board and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders, and our other shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. Our Promoters and Promoter Group may take or block actions with respect to our business which may conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company.

50. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters may be less than the Issue Price.

The average acquisition cost per Equity Share held by our Promoters might be lower than the issue price. Consequently, investors purchasing the Equity Shares may incur a cost higher than the average acquisition cost of our Promoter's Equity Shares.

51. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and any bank or financial institution or any independent agency has not appraised the same. The deployment of funds in the project is entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titles “Objects of the Issue”.

The fund requirement and deployment, as mentioned in the “Objects of the Issue” on page 93 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on the estimates of our management and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. These fund requirements are based on our current business plan. We cannot assure that the current business plan will be implemented in its entirety or at all. In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter Objects of the issue is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation as stated under chapter Objects of the Issue will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control. Occurrence of any such event may delay our business plans and/or may have an adverse bearing on our expected revenues and earnings.

52. We have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the issue. Further we have not identified any alternate source of financing the ‘Objects of the Issue’. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, operations and financial performance.

As on date, we have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the objects of the issue. We meet our capital requirements through our bank finance, owned funds and internal accruals. Any shortfall in our net owned funds, internal accruals and our inability to raise debt in future would result in us being unable to meet our capital requirements, which in turn will negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further we have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this issue or any shortfall in the issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans. For further details please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 93 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

53. Misconduct by our employees or failure of our internal processes could harm us by impairing our ability to attract and retain customers.

Employee misconduct or the failure of our internal processes and procedures has the potential to negatively impact us by compromising our ability to attract and retain customers, exposing us to significant legal liability, and causing reputational harm. Our business is inherently susceptible to the risks associated with employee misconduct or the breakdown of internal processes and procedures. Examples of employee misconduct include the improper use or disclosure of confidential information, leading to potential legal battles and severe damage to our reputation or financial standing.

Despite our efforts to monitor, detect, and prevent fraud or misappropriation by employees through various internal control measures, internal policies, and insurance coverage, these precautions may not be universally effective. It is possible that we may be unable to fully prevent or deter such activities in all cases. While we have successfully identified and addressed issues of this nature in the past, with no material impact, instances of fraud and misconduct by employees may go unnoticed for certain periods before corrective action is taken.

54. Our failure to manage growth effectively may adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our ability to sustain growth depends primarily upon our ability to manage key issues such as our ability to sustain existing relationships with our clients, ability to obtain raw materials at better prices, ability to compete effectively, ability to scale up our operations, adhering to high quality and execution standards, our ability to expand our manufacturing capabilities, the effectiveness of our marketing initiatives, selecting and retaining skilled personnel. Sustained growth also puts pressure on our ability to effectively manage and control historical and emerging risks. Our inability to effectively manage any of these issues may adversely affect our business growth and, as a result, impact our businesses, results of operations and financial condition.

55. We are dependent on third parties for the supply of utilities, such as water and electricity, at our manufacturing facilities and any disruption in the supply of such utilities could adversely affect our operations.

Our business is dependent on the delivery of an adequate and uninterrupted supply of electricity and water at a reasonable cost. We procure utilities, such as water and electricity, from third parties for use at our manufacturing facilities. Reliance on third parties for such utilities exposes us to risks such as shortage or breakdown in supply, the correction of which is in the hands of such third parties. Any interruption in the continuous supply of water and electricity may negatively impact our manufacturing processes, which may result in delays in delivery of our products or non-delivery, resulting in loss of revenue and damage to our reputation or customer relationship. In case of the unavailability of any supply from, any of our utility providers for any reason, we are unable to assure you that we shall be able to source such utilities from alternate sources in a timely manner and at a commercially reasonable cost, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

56. Improper handling of our products, or spoilage of and damage to our products, could damage our reputation and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our traded products are subject to risks during their transport or storage. Any shortcoming in the transport or storage of our products due to negligence, human error or otherwise, may damage our products and result in noncompliance with applicable quality standards. Any allegation that our products do not match requisite quality standards could damage our reputation, adversely affect our sales and result in legal proceedings being initiated against us, irrespective of whether such allegations have any factual basis. We cannot assure you that we will not be subject to such product liability claims in the future. Should any of our products be perceived or found to be faulty, we may be subject to regulatory action, product recalls and our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. We may also be exposed to liability from consumers for defects in the quality of our products.

57. Our Company has not entered any long-term contracts with any of our customers and we typically operate based on Contracts/ orders. Inability to maintain regular order flow would adversely impact our revenues and profitability.

Our Company has had long standing business relationships with various customers, and we have been serving our clients since many years. However, we have not entered any specific contracts with these clients, and we cater to them on an order-by-order basis. As a result, our client can terminate their relationships with us without any notice and, without consequence, which could materially and adversely impact our business. Consequently, our revenue may be subject to variability because of fluctuations in demand for our services. Our Company's clients have no obligation to avail our service and may either cancel, reduce, or delay service orders. The service orders placed by our Company's clients are dependent on factors such as the customer satisfaction with the level of consistency of the services that our Company supplies. Although we emphasis on quality, timely delivery of services, in the absence of long-term contracts, any change in the service orders could adversely affect the business and the profitability of our Company.

58. Our Company's failure to maintain the quality standards of the Service could adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Quality of services is a vital element for our sector. We provide distinguished services to a variety of customers which provide us a safeguard against the change of trend with any type of customer as our operational cash influges get balanced with other type of our customer base. Any rapid change in our customers' expectation on account of changes in technology or introduction of new kind of services or any other reason and failure on our part to meet their expectation could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Any failure on our part to successfully meet customer demand or preference may negatively affect our business, results of operation and financial condition.

59. We are exposed to the risk of delays or non-payment by our clients and other counter parties, which may also result in cash flow mismatches.

We are exposed to counter party credit risk in the usual course of our business dealings with our clients or other counterparties who may delay or fail to make payments or fulfil their other contractual obligations. The financial condition of our clients, business partners, suppliers and other counterparties may be affected by the performance of their business, which may be impacted by several factors including general economic conditions. We cannot assure you of the continued viability of our counterparties or that we will accurately assess their creditworthiness. We also cannot assure you that we will be able to collect all or any part of any overdue payments. Any material non-payment or non-performance by our clients, business partners, suppliers or other counterparties could affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

60. Our ability to grow our business depends on our relationships with our customers and any adverse changes in these relationships, or our inability to enter new relationships and thereby expand our customer network, could negatively affect our business and results of operations.

Our business relies heavily on our customers' decisions and actions, which depend on our ability to maintain and strengthen relationships with them. We need to consistently meet their requirements by offering marketable products, competitive pricing, timely deliveries, and consistent quality. If we fail to meet these needs, we may see a decrease in orders or lose business from affected customers.

Factors beyond our control, such as changes in customer preferences, demands for price reductions, or the financial decline of our customers, could also impact our relationships and reduce demand for our products. This could significantly decrease our revenue.

Additionally, disruptions in product delivery due to poor freight handling, transportation issues, natural disasters, disease outbreaks, wars, or labor problems could delay or lose deliveries, leading to insufficient inventory for our customers. Failing to deliver products on time could adversely affect our business and operations.

61. We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies.

The success of our business depends substantially on our ability to implement our business strategies effectively. Even though we have successfully executed our business strategies in the past, there is no guarantee that we can implement the same on time and within the estimated budget going forward, or that we will be able to meet the expectations of our targeted clients. Changes in regulations applicable to us may also make it difficult to implement our business strategies. Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and the results of operations.

62. Our future funds requirements, in the form of issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flows, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

63. There is no monitoring agency appointed by Our Company and the deployment of funds are at the discretion of our Management and our Board of Directors, though it shall be monitored by our Audit Committee.

As per SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2009, as amended, appointment of monitoring agency is required only if Issue size exceeds Rs. 100 Crore. Hence, we have not appointed any monitoring agency to monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds. However, as per the Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Audit Committee of our Company would be monitoring the utilization of the Issue Proceeds.

64. If we are unable to source business opportunities effectively, we may not achieve our financial objectives.

Our ability to achieve our financial objectives will depend on our ability to identify, evaluate, and accomplish business opportunities. To grow our business, we will need to hire, train, supervise and manage new employees, expand our distribution network and to implement systems capable of effectively accommodating our growth. However, we cannot assure you that any such employees will contribute to the success of our business or that we will implement such systems effectively. Our failure to source business opportunities effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. It also is possible that the strategies used by us in the future may be different from those presently in use. No assurance can be given that our analyses of the market and other data or the strategies we use or plans in future to use will be successful under various market conditions.

65. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholders' investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate. For details of our dividend history, see "Dividend Policy" on page 254 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

66. Industry information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from industry reports. There can be no assurance that such third-party statistical, financial, and other industry information is either complete or accurate.

We have relied on the reports of certain independent third parties for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These reports are subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such industry reports and other sources. Although we believe that the data may be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed, and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us, or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

67. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Issue, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price, or at all.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for Equity Shares. The Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a fixed price process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors.

The Issue Price of our Equity Shares has been determined by book-built method. This price is based on numerous factors (For further information, please refer chapter titled “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 123 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus) and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Among the factors that could affect our share price include without limitation. The following:

- Half yearly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- General market conditions; and Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

68. The sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

69. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily “circuit breaker” imposed by NSE, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchanges based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares.

70. We may need additional capital and we may not be able to obtain it, which could adversely affect our liquidity and financial position.

We may require additional cash resources due to changed business conditions or other future developments. Our ability to obtain additional capital is subject to a variety of uncertainties, including our future financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, conditions in the capital markets in which we may seek to raise funds and general economic, political and other conditions in India and elsewhere. We may be unable to obtain additional capital in a timely manner or on acceptable terms or at all. The terms and amount of any additional capital raised through issuances of equity securities may result in significant dilution to our shareholders. Any incurrence of debt would result in the incurrence of interest expense and could require us to agree to operating and financial covenants that could restrict our operational flexibility and materially and adversely affect our business. Any termination of such membership could adversely affect our operations.

71. Failure to maintain confidential information of our customers could adversely affect our results of operations or damage our reputation.

We enter into confidentiality agreements and non-disclosure agreements with our customers and other third parties. Our agreements with our customers also contain confidentiality and non-disclosure clauses. As per these agreements, we are required to keep confidential, the know-how and technical specifications, if any, provided to us by these customers. In the event of any breach or alleged breach of our confidentiality agreements with our customers, these customers may terminate their engagements with us or initiate litigation for breach of contract. Moreover, most of these contracts do not contain provisions limiting our liability with respect to breaches of our obligation to keep the information we receive from them confidential. As a result, if our customers' confidential information is misappropriated by us or our employees, our customers may consider us liable for that act and seek damages and compensation from us, in addition, to seeking termination of the contract. Although there have been no assertions of misappropriation of confidential information or the intellectual property in the past, any such assertion by any of our customers against us, if successful, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Even if such assertions against us are unsuccessful, they may cause us to incur reputational harm and substantial cost.

72. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

We manage our internal compliance by monitoring and evaluating internal controls and ensuring all relevant statutory and regulatory compliances. However, there can be no assurance that in future no deficiency will be incurred. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

73. A deceleration in the economic growth of India or global economic instability may have a detrimental impact on our business, financial condition, and operational results.

We presently operate within India, a jurisdiction typically characterized by a developing economy, potentially lacking firmly established legal and regulatory systems compared to other nations. Our operational performance, growth trajectory, and the market value of our Equity Shares are heavily contingent on the overall performance of the Indian economy, its GDP growth rate, and the economic cycle within the country. Historical instances have seen India undergo economic slowdowns due to various factors, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, unsustainably high current account deficits, capital outflows, and subsequent exchange rate pressures. While recent indications suggest a positive economic turnaround, there is no certainty that growth will remain uninterrupted, and the possibility of increased inflation persists. An economic deceleration in India could adversely affect our business, as well as our customers and contractual counterparts, particularly if such a downturn is prolonged. In periods marked by high inflation rates, our operational expenses may escalate, potentially impacting our cash flows and operational results adversely.

74. Adverse global economic, political, and social conditions have the potential to impede our business operations, escalate costs, and negatively impact our stock valuation.

Factors of a global economic and political nature, beyond our direct influence, play a pivotal role in shaping forecasts and directly impacting performance. Such factors encompass interest rates, economic growth rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, alterations in regulatory frameworks, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit accessibility, consumer debt levels, unemployment patterns, threats and activities related to terrorism, global military and domestic disturbances, conflicts, and other elements that shape consumer confidence, spending patterns, and tourism trends.

75. The impact of natural or man-made disasters has the potential to negatively influence our financial performance, cash flows, and overall financial health. Instances of hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest, and other acts of violence have the potential to adversely affect financial markets and pose risks to our business.

The potential occurrence of natural disasters such as cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic diseases, and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, poses a risk to our results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition. Acts of terrorism and violence may have adverse effects on the Indian securities markets. Additionally, any deterioration in international relations, particularly between India and its neighbouring countries, may lead to investor concerns about regional stability, potentially impacting the price of Equity Shares. India has experienced local civil disturbances in recent years, and the possibility of future civil unrest or other adverse social, economic, or political events in India could negatively affect our business. Such incidents may also contribute to a perception that investing in Indian companies entails a higher level of risk, potentially impacting our business and the market price of Equity Shares.

76. A potential deceleration in the economic growth of India could have detrimental effects on our business.

The success and expansion of our business are intricately linked to the overall health of the Indian economy. Any slowdown or perceived deceleration in India's economic growth, coupled with potential fluctuations in global commodity prices, could negatively impact our business. Additionally, adverse developments such as an increase in the trade deficit, a downgrade in India's sovereign debt rating, or a reduction in India's foreign exchange reserves might have negative repercussions on interest rates and liquidity, thereby adversely affecting both the Indian economy and our business. Notably, the economic downturn caused by the COVID-19 pandemic in India and globally underscored the vulnerability of the macroeconomic environment. Any such downturn in India could adversely affect our business, financial condition, operational results, and future prospects. Various factors, including a rise in interest rates, inflation, adverse weather conditions affecting agriculture, commodity and energy price fluctuations, among others, could contribute to a slowdown in the Indian economy. Such a slowdown might impact the Indian government's policies toward our industry, thereby affecting our financial performance and hindering the execution of our business strategy.

Moreover, the Indian economy is influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging markets in Asia. Fluctuations in India's foreign exchange reserves and exchange rates may impact liquidity and interest rates within the Indian economy, thereby affecting our financial condition. Loss of investor confidence in other emerging market economies or global financial instability could also have adverse effects on the Indian economy, thereby materially impacting our business, financial condition, operational results, and future prospects. Additional factors that could negatively affect the Indian economy include a scarcity of credit or financing, potentially impacting economic conditions and financing availability for our expansions; volatility in trading activity on India's principal stock exchanges; changes in tax, trade, fiscal, or monetary policies, including the application of GST; political instability, terrorism, or military conflicts in India or neighbouring countries; natural or man-made disasters; infectious disease outbreaks or other public health concerns; prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including those in India's primary export markets; and other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India or its financial service sectors.

77. Investing in our Equity Shares involves inherent risks associated with investments in Indian companies.

As an Indian-incorporated entity with assets and employees based in India, our business, financial condition, and the market value of our Equity Shares are subject to various general risks linked to the Indian economic landscape. Changes in interest rates within India, policies enacted by the Government of India – encompassing taxation policies and industry-related measures – as well as broader political, social, and economic developments impacting the country can significantly influence our operations.

78. Furthermore, any potential downgrade of India's debt rating by an international rating agency could adversely affect our business.

The credit ratings of India, as assessed by international rating agencies, play a crucial role in determining the overall economic environment. An adverse shift in these ratings could negatively impact the Indian economy, potentially hampering our ability to secure additional financing in a timely manner or at all. This, in turn, may affect the interest rates and other commercial terms associated with such financing. The consequential impact could extend to our business and financial performance, our ability to secure funding for capital expenditures, and the market value of our Equity Shares.

79. Our business faces potential adverse impacts from natural calamities, climate change, and health epidemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic, within India. Additionally, hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest, and acts of violence pose risks that could negatively affect our business operations, results, and financial condition.

India has encountered natural calamities such as earthquakes and floods in recent years. These events not only have the potential to adversely impact the Indian economy but could also damage or destroy our concentrated services or other assets located in a specific region. Any occurrence of such natural calamities could have cascading effects on our business, operational results, and financial standing.

The region has also experienced social, religious, and civil unrest, including instances like the mass protests by farmers against farm acts passed by the Indian Parliament in September 2020. Should mass protests escalate into civil unrest, it could impact our operations and have adverse effects on our business, results, and financial condition. Ongoing fragile relations between India and Pakistan, concerning issues like terrorism, armaments, and Kashmir, along with ongoing border disputes between India and China, pose geopolitical risks. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could disrupt communications and make travel more challenging, potentially influencing both the Indian and U.A.E. economies. Such political tensions may create a perception of increased risk associated with investments in Indian companies. Similar events of social and civil unrest in other countries in Asia and the Middle East could further influence the Indian economy and potentially have a material adverse impact on the market for securities of Indian companies.

80. Adverse global economic, political, and social conditions have the potential to impede our business operations, escalate costs, and negatively impact our stock valuation.

Factors of a global economic and political nature, beyond our direct influence, play a pivotal role in shaping forecasts and directly impacting performance. Such factors encompass interest rates, economic growth rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, alterations in regulatory frameworks, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit accessibility, consumer debt levels, unemployment patterns, threats and activities related to terrorism, global military and domestic disturbances, conflicts, and other elements that shape consumer confidence, spending patterns, and tourism trends.

81. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws and regulations, may adversely affect our business and financial performance

Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by changes in law or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations in India applicable to us and our business. For further details please refer to the chapter “Key Industrial Regulations and Policies.” beginning on page 210 for details of the laws currently applicable to us. There can be no assurance that the central or the state governments in India may not implement new regulations and policies which will require us to obtain approvals and licenses from the central or the state governments in India and other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the implementation of the new regulations may have a material adverse effect on all our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may have to incur capital expenditures to comply with the requirements of any new regulations, which may also materially harm our results of operations.

Further, pursuant to SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2018/138 dated November 01, 2018, Retail Individual Investors applying in public issue may use either Application Supported by Blocked Amount (ASBA) facility for making application or also can use UPI as a payment mechanism with Application Supported by Blocked Amount for making application. For details in this regard, specific attention is invited to the chapter titled “Issue Procedure” beginning on page 307 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The process of Book Building under the SEBI ICDR Regulations is subject to change from time to time and the investors are advised to make their own judgment about investment through this process prior to making a Bid or application in the Issue.

For further details on the method and procedure for Bidding, please see the section entitled “Issue Procedure” on page 307 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20.00 to ₹24.00 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares, and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24.00	500	16.67%
1000	23.00	1500	50.00%
1500	22.00	3000	100.00%
2000	21.00	5000	166.67%
2500	20.00	7500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Steps to be taken by the Bidders for Bidding:

- Check eligibility for making a Bid (see section titled “Issue Procedure” on page 307 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus);
- Ensure that you have a Demat account and the Demat account details are correctly mentioned in the Bid cum Application Form;
- Ensure the correctness of your PAN, DP ID, and Client ID mentioned in the Bid cum Application Form. Based on these parameters, the Registrar to the Issue will obtain the Demographic Details of the Bidders from the Depositories.
- Except for Bids on behalf of the Central or State Government officials, residents of Sikkim, and the officials appointed by the courts, who may be exempt from specifying their PAN for transacting in the securities market, for Bids of all values ensure that you have mentioned your PAN allotted under the Income Tax Act in the Bid cum Application Form. The exemption for Central or State Governments and officials appointed by the courts and for investors residing in Sikkim is subject to the Depository Participant’s verification of the veracity of such claims of the investors by collecting sufficient documentary evidence in support of their claims.
- Ensure that the Bid cum Application Form is duly completed as per instructions given in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and in the Bid cum Application Form;

Looking ahead, with the perspective to increase business operations, our company projects inventory holding days to be around 161 days, 150 days and 144 days in fiscal year ended 2025, 2026 and 2027 respectively. To avoid any supply chain disruptions, we plan to maintain these inventory levels. This strategic approach ensures we can meet project demands efficiently while optimizing our working capital. Reason for lower inventory days in FY 2021-22: During FY 2021-22, our inventory holding period was significantly lower at 67 days compared to subsequent years. This shorter inventory holding period was primarily attributed to the following factors: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. High Demand During COVID-19 Pandemic: The COVID-19 pandemic created an unprecedented surge in demand for products such as COVID-19 Rapid Test Kits, Viral Transport Media (VTM), Oxygen Concentrator and other medical equipment. This increased demand led to faster inventory turnover, as products were dispatched and utilized more rapidly to meet urgent market needs. 2. Streamlined Operations During the Pandemic: To cater to the heightened demand, the company adopted efficient inventory management practices, prioritizing quick procurement and deployment of essential raw materials and finished goods. This agility in operations further reduced the average inventory holding period. 3. Supply Chain Prioritization: Given the global focus on addressing the pandemic, suppliers and manufacturers prioritized the production and distribution of critical materials, resulting in a quicker replenishment cycle and shorter lead times. These factors combined to significantly reduce the inventory holding period during FY 2021-22. However, as operations normalized post-pandemic and the company expanded its project portfolio, inventory holding days gradually increased to ensure preparedness for diverse project demands.
Trade Receivables	Trade Receivables are amount owed to Company by customers following Sales of Products and Supply of Services. Our historical trend of trade receivables holding period range has been in range 54 days to 91 days during the last three financial years, the average of the same is 67 days. Trade Receivable days for period ended on September 30, 2024 was 75 days. Looking ahead, we expect the trade receivables holding period to be around 65 days for the fiscal years ending 2025, 2026, and 2027, based on current projections and industry trends.

	As part of our expansion plans, we are purchasing additional machinery for a new manufacturing unit to increase our production capacity. This expansion will lead to higher revenue from operations. To support this growth and attract a larger customer base, we plan to offer longer credit periods to customers, giving them more time to pay their invoices. This approach is expected to boost sales volumes and strengthen customer relationships, aligning with our strategy to grow our business while maintaining financial stability.
Trade Payables	Our trade payables holding period in FY 2021-22, FY 2022-23, FY 2023-24 and for period ended September 30, 2024 were 10 days, 55 days, 130 days and 74 days respectively. We are considering to further lowering down the holding period of trade payables to 66 days, 64 days and 61 days, for FY 2024-25, F.Y. 2025-26 and F.Y. 2026-27 respectively. Reasons for Reducing the creditor Days: Competitive Edge: By reducing the trade payables period, we position ourselves more favorably in the market, enhancing our reputation as a reliable business partner. Priority and Reliability: Shortening our payment cycles strengthens relationships with key suppliers, ensuring we receive priority treatment and reliable supplies, especially as we expand our product lines and markets. Better Negotiation: The Company anticipates better purchase pricing & terms due to higher discounts on account of improved vendor payment terms, continuous supply and aftersales support from vendors, reduced holding period by ensuring timely and committed payments. This will eventually add to the bottom line. Vendor Requirements: Some of our key suppliers require shorter payment terms for continued partnership. Meeting these terms is essential for an uninterrupted supply of critical materials and fostering long-term relationships with these vital partners.
Short Term Loan and Advances, Other Current Assets	Short term loans and advances mainly consist of Balance with government authorities, Advances to Suppliers and Advances to employees. While Other Current Assets majorly belongs to interest accrued on fixed deposits. These loans and advances and other current assets are towards accelerating the business and integral part of our business. We expect the growth in these assets to be in line with the expected growth in business.

GLOBAL OUTLOOK:

The global economy is stabilizing, following several years of overlapping negative shocks. Despite elevated financing costs and heightened geopolitical tensions, global activity firmed in early 2024. Global growth is envisaged to reach a slightly faster pace this year than previously expected, due mainly to the continued solid expansion of the U.S. economy. However, the extent of expected declines in global interest rates has moderated amid lingering inflation pressures in key economies. By historical standards, the global outlook remains subdued: both advanced economies and emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) are set to grow at a slower pace over 2024-26 than in the decade preceding the pandemic.

Domestic demand is projected to improve in many EMDEs this year, in line with a moderate cyclical recovery from the effects of high inflation, tight financial conditions, and anemic industrial activity. Aggregate EMDE growth is nonetheless poised to decelerate slightly mainly because of idiosyncratic factors in some large economies. Moreover, significant challenges persist in vulnerable economies—including in low-income countries (LICs) and those facing elevated levels of conflict and violence—where growth prospects have deteriorated markedly since January.

Global trade growth is recovering, supported by a pickup in goods trade. Services-trade growth is expected to provide less of a tailwind this year, given that tourism has nearly recovered to pre-pandemic levels. However, the trade outlook remains lacklustre compared to recent decades, partly reflecting a proliferation of trade-restrictive measures and elevated trade policy uncertainty.

Aggregate commodity prices have increased since late last year. Amid fluctuations, average oil prices are expected to be slightly higher in 2024 than in 2023, underpinned by a tight demand-supply balance in a context of continued geopolitical tensions. Nonetheless, average energy prices are projected to be marginally lower this year than last—reflecting notable declines in prices for natural gas and coal—while remaining well above pre-pandemic levels. Metals prices are expected to be little changed over the forecast horizon, as demand related to metals-intensive clean energy investments and a broader pickup in global industrial activity attenuate the impact on commodity demand of declining real estate activity in China. Well-supplied markets for grains and other agricultural commodities should see edible food crop prices decline modestly.

Inflation continues to wane globally, making progress toward central bank targets in advanced economies and EMDEs, but at a slower pace than previously expected. Core inflation has remained stubbornly high in many economies, supported by rapid growth of services prices. Over the remainder of 2024, continued tight monetary policy stances and slowing wage increases should help reduce inflation further. By the end of 2026, global inflation is expected to settle at an average rate of 2.8 percent, broadly consistent with central bank targets.

The anticipated extent of monetary easing in advanced economies this year has diminished substantially since late 2023—by more than a percentage point in the case of the United States. Expected policy rate paths diverge across major economies, as the European Central Bank proceeds with policy easing while the U.S. Federal Reserve keeps rates on hold for longer. Indeed, aside from short-term fluctuations, market expectations for the path of U.S. interest rates have repeatedly moved higher since 2022. Despite this market reassessment, global financial conditions have eased this year, reflecting solid risk appetite following last year's progress on disinflation and diminished concerns about the possibility of a sharp slowdown in global growth. Global equity markets have made sizable gains.

EMDE financial conditions similarly became more accommodative early this year, aided by declining domestic policy rates, improving global sentiment, and expected easing of advanced economy monetary conditions. EMDE conditions turned somewhat less accommodative in the second quarter, as a strengthening of the U.S. dollar—prompted by geopolitical tensions and firm inflation data in the United States—coincided with a bout of capital outflows. Although market perceptions of sovereign credit risk have generally eased this year, EMDE borrowing costs continue to be high, and marked divergences persist. Indeed, credit ratings and debt sustainability analyses indicate that about 40 percent of EMDEs remain acutely vulnerable to debt-related stress.

Following two years of sharp fiscal consolidation at the global level, fiscal policy became generally supportive of growth in 2023, especially in advanced economies. Going forward, fiscal consolidation is projected to resume, exerting a material drag on near-term growth in advanced economies and a modest headwind in EMDEs. This reflects government efforts to rebuild fiscal space, which has been eroded by the run-up in debt since the onset of the pandemic and the sharp increases in borrowing costs. Against this backdrop, global growth is expected to remain subdued at 2.6 percent in 2024—unchanged from the previous year—reflecting tepid investment growth amid broadly restrictive monetary policies, and moderating consumption growth, in part because of receding savings buffers and diminishing fiscal support. Growth is projected to edge up to an average of 2.7 percent in 2025-26, as trade growth strengthens and broad but measured monetary policy easing supports activity in both advanced economies and EMDEs.

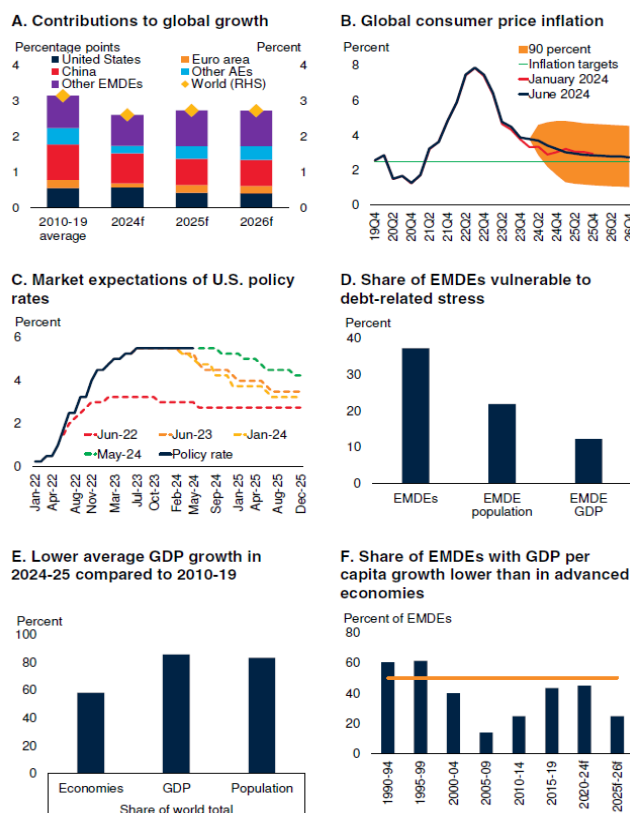

Across the forecast horizon, global growth remains lack luster by recent historical standards, at about 0.4 percentage point below the 2010-19 average. In 2024-25, growth is set to underperform its average pace in the 2010s in nearly 60 percent of economies, representing more than 80 percent of global output and population.

The subdued outlook—despite the anticipated moderation of various cyclical headwinds—underscores a secular deceleration of potential growth in many large economies. Relative to pre pandemic norms, growth has weakened notably in countries that experienced high rates of inflation, much of which emanated from shocks to supply chains and commodity prices. Yet this trend is set to continue in the coming years, suggesting potentially enduring supply-side weakness.

Growth in EMDEs is forecast to hover around 4 percent a year over 2024-26. Growth in China is expected to slow this year and ease further in 2025 and 2026, with cyclical headwinds weighing on growth in the near term, along with a continuing structural slowdown. Excluding China, EMDE growth is projected to edge up to 3.5 percent this year and then firm to an average of 3.9 percent in 2025-26. In many EMDEs, this pickup reflects improving domestic demand, supported by receding inflation and easing financial conditions, and a cyclical rebound in trade, reflecting firming demand from some advanced economies. Across EMDE regions, the outlook is expected to diverge somewhat, with growth forecast to be weaker than the 2010-19 average in East Asia and Pacific, Europe and Central Asia, and South Asia, but broadly returning to pre pandemic averages in most other regions over 2025-26.

Global trade

Global trade in goods and services was nearly flat in 2023—the weakest performance outside of global recessions in the past 50 years. Amid a sharp slowdown in global industrial production, the volume of goods trade contracted for most of 2023 and fell by 1.9 percent for the year as a whole. The evolution of goods trade diverged across regions, with volumes declining in advanced economies, especially in Europe, and stagnating in EMDEs as expansions in China and Europe and Central Asia (ECA) offset contractions in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC), Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA), and Middle East and North Africa (MNA).

The value of global services trade grew about 9 percent in 2023, driven primarily by a recovery in tourism flows—exports of travel services surged by about 38 percent (WTO 2024). However, the pace of expansion in tourism was substantially below that in 2022, with recent data indicating tourism activity in line with pre-pandemic levels, suggesting a near-full recovery in most regions. Stabilization in services trade is reflected in the steadying of the global services PMI for new export orders, which has remained closer to neutral thresholds compared to last year.

The number of new trade-restricting measures is still well above pre-pandemic levels—although down from the historical high reached in 2023—exerting a further drag on global trade. Recent attacks on commercial vessels in the Red Sea, coupled with climate-related shipping disruptions in the Panama Canal, have affected maritime transit and freight rates along these critical routes (Bogetic et al. 2024). These disruptions, however, have not yet led to a substantial increase in global supply chain pressures or lengthened global supplier delivery times. Adverse effects have been limited to a few regions and specific industries so far.

Commodity markets

After a sharp decline between mid-2022 and mid-2023, commodity price swings were less pronounced in the second half of last year. In 2024, aggregate commodity prices have generally risen against a backdrop of tight supply conditions and signs of firmer industrial activity. Average commodity prices are nonetheless forecast to recede slightly over the forecast period, mainly reflecting improving supply conditions, while remaining well above pre-pandemic levels. Oil prices have fluctuated this year, trending substantially higher in April in the context of escalating tensions in the Middle East, but subsequently pulling back. Against a backdrop of continued geopolitical risks, the average price of Brent oil is forecast to be slightly higher this year than last, at $84/bbl, before receding to $79/bbl in 2025 amid the partial unwind of OPEC+ supply cuts and expanding non-OPEC+ production. The near-term oil price forecast is notably uncertain, however, given the potential for price spikes resulting from conflict-related supply disruptions.

Natural gas prices fell nearly 28 percent in the first quarter of 2024, relative to the previous quarter, amid robust production, mild winter weather, and elevated inventories. After reaching a nearly 30-year low in March, the price of U.S. natural gas surged in May, in part due to increased liquefied natural gas (LNG) exports. U.S. natural gas prices are expected to stabilize in the near term, before increasing further in 2025 as gas liquefaction capacity expands, allowing more supplies to be diverted to other markets. Europe's natural gas prices rebounded in the second quarter of 2024, reflecting persistent supply risks related to ongoing conflicts. Despite the anticipated growth of U.S. LNG exports, average European gas prices are envisaged to rise by 11 percent in 2025, as industrial activity picks up, supporting demand.

Most metal prices were relatively stable during the first quarter of this year. However, among precious metals, gold prices reached record highs, fueled by geopolitical concerns and central bank purchases. In the second quarter, copper prices rose to a record nominal high on supply concerns, while benchmark aluminum prices spiked after the introduction of new sanctions on the Russian Federation. Metals prices, excluding those of precious metals, are projected to remain little changed, on average, in 2024-25, staying well above pre-pandemic levels. Weaker metals demand associated with lower real estate investment in China is likely to be substantially counterbalanced by firming global industrial demand and metals intensive clean energy investments.

Agricultural commodity prices were close to unchanged, in aggregate, in the first quarter. Average prices are set to soften somewhat in 2024- 25. Food prices are forecast to dip by 6 percent in 2024 and 4 percent in 2025, mainly reflecting ample supplies for grains as well as oils and meals. Volatile weather and increasing trade restrictions or disruptions could nonetheless push prices higher. Despite declining consumer food price inflation, acute food insecurity is estimated to have further worsened last year and doubled globally since 2019. Surging hunger is linked to a combination of still-elevated consumer food prices and proliferating violence and instability in vulnerable areas, notably in parts of the Middle East and Sub-Saharan Africa.

Global Inflation

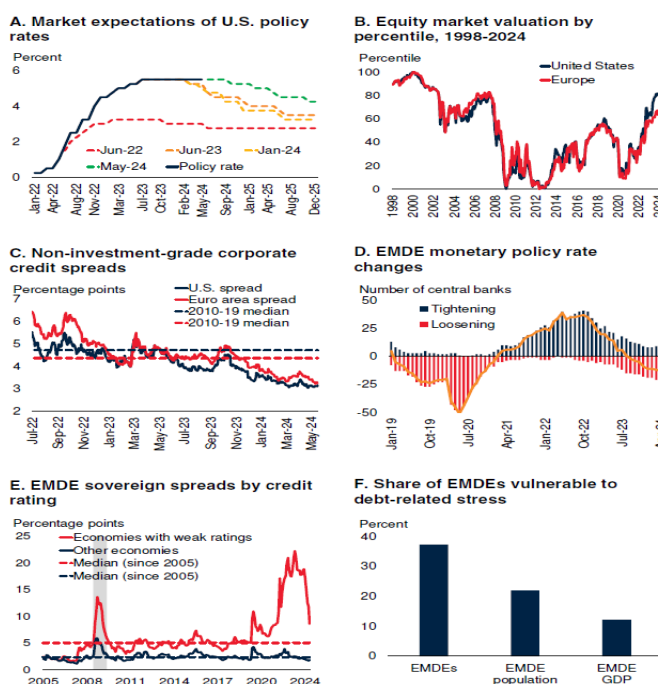

Global inflation has continued to decline, yet it remains above target in most advanced economies and in about one-fourth of inflation-targeting EMDEs. The initial phase of disinflation after the pandemic was underpinned by falling energy prices as well as waning supply chain pressures. Recently, the pace of consumer price disinflation has slowed, reflecting a partial rebound in energy prices, along with a notable slowdown in the rate of decline in core inflation.

In advanced economies, disinflation in consumer goods prices appears to have bottomed out, while inflation in consumer services remains elevated. In the United States, resilient economic activity, alongside rapid increases in the cost of shelter, has given rise to persistently high services and, more broadly, core inflation over the past few months. To some extent, the strength of U.S. productivity growth has mitigated these trends, likely lessening the inflationary effects of rising wages. In contrast, subdued productivity in the euro area has driven economy-wide labor costs higher, underpinning elevated core and services inflation, despite anemic euro area demand.

Global financial developments

Global financial conditions have eased on balance since last year, primarily reflecting declines in risk premia amid still-elevated interest rates. Central banks across major advanced economies are expected to gradually lower policy rates this year, but the level of real interest rates is set to remain a headwind to economic activity— albeit a diminishing one—for some time. Policy rate projections derived from financial markets have been volatile since U.S. policy tightening started in 2022, with expectations repeatedly revised higher over time. Meanwhile, most advanced-economy central banks continue to emphasize that the pace of easing will be cautious, reflecting persistent inflationary pressures—and, in the case of the United States, robust economic activity. As such, government bond yields are well above pre-pandemic levels and are likely to remain so, absent large negative shocks to growth.

Risk appetite picked up globally early in the year— particularly in advanced economies— signaling optimism that continued steady disinflation might accompany resilient growth. With volatility subdued, advanced economy equity valuations reached elevated levels, especially in the United States, where confidence regarding potential productivity gains from AI played a key role. Sentiment briefly wilted in April, amid firm U.S. inflation data and escalating geopolitical tensions, but rebounded thereafter. Although the cost of credit remains high, perceptions of corporate credit risk appear muted—except for asset classes, such as office real estate, that have been adversely affected by structural post-pandemic shifts in activity. Corporate credit spreads remain well below 2010- 19 average levels in both the United States and the euro area. Banks in these jurisdictions continue to report tightening of standards for lending to firms, but by markedly narrowing majorities. EMDE financial conditions also eased in the first quarter of 2024, reflecting expectations of easing advanced-economy monetary conditions, improving global investor sentiment, and ongoing policy rate cuts in many large EMDEs. Conditions turned less accommodative early in the second quarter, as safe haven flows and declining expectations of U.S. rate cuts stoked a notable strengthening of the U.S. dollar and a bout of debt and equity portfolio outflows. Sovereign spreads have nonetheless trended to below 2010-19 levels in the majority of middle-income EMDEs, signaling investor confidence that financial stress risks are broadly contained. In contrast, spreads remain elevated among EMDEs with weak credit ratings, even if they have declined substantially this year.

In contrast, spreads remain elevated among EMDEs with weak credit ratings, even if they have declined substantially this year. Indeed, despite some easing of global conditions, financial stress concerns remain acute in about 40 percent of MDEs—comprising those with weak credit ratings, and those where debt sustainability analyses indicate a high risk of, or existing, debt distress.

Among weakly rated countries that had market access in the 2010s, a combination of political instability, the pandemic and other external shocks, and financial crises in the 2020s has rendered non-concessional debt prohibitively expensive. Among unrated countries—many of them low-income countries—debt burdens have grown increasingly severe owing to a decade of debt build-up in the 2010s, coupled with anemic post-pandemic recoveries and rising debt-service costs

INDIAN OUTLOOK:

Domestic economic activity remained buoyant in FY24, and the momentum continued in FY25. GST collection jumped to a high of ₹ 2.1 lakh crore in April 2024. The strong uptick was driven by an increase in domestic transactions and imports. The average GST collections have also displayed a level shift upwards over the years due to heightened economic activity and a widening tax base. Among lead demand indicators, toll collection registered continued growth in April 2024. Electricity consumption also accelerated in April due to rising temperatures and increased industrial activity. Vehicle registrations surged in April 2024, led by two-wheelers on the back of stable fuel prices and a positive outlook for monsoon. However, on account of seasonality, e-way bill generation softened compared to March 2024, but registered strong growth compared to the corresponding month last year GST collection recorded a 12.4 per cent year-on-year (YOY) growth driven by strong YOY increase in domestic transactions (13.4 per cent) and imports (8.3 per cent). Volume of E-way bill generation moderated to 9.7 crore in April 2024 from 10.4 crore in March 2024, still registering a growth of 14.4 per cent over April 2023. In April 2024, India's power consumption surged by 11 per cent to 144.2 billion units compared to the previous year. Vehicle registration went up by 27 per cent YOY to 2.2 million in April 2024. Toll collections as reported under Electronic Toll collection (ETC) data reached ₹55.6 billion in April 2024, registering a growth of 8.3 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

Capital Expenditure:

According to the data released by the Controller General of Accounts, capital expenditure by the Union Government from April 2023 to February 2024 stood at ₹8.1 lakh crore, 36.5 per cent higher compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Increased capital expenditure by the Union Government has led to an improvement in the quality of Government spending, as reflected in the decline in the revenue expenditure to capital outlay ratio. The ratio declined from 7.1 in FY20 (April-February) to 3.7 in FY24 (April-February). The increased spending on capex has also incentivized States to increase their capital spending. Capital expenditure by 22 major States grew by 26.6 per cent during April 23-February 24, versus 13.3 per cent in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Increased Government investment activity has also resulted in the crowding-in of private investment. Capital Goods and Construction/Infrastructure Goods indices of the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) were 6.2 per cent and 9.6 per cent higher during FY24 compared to the previous year. Though imports of capital goods in FY24 were marginally lower than that in the previous year, their share in overall imports increased from 11.8 per cent in FY23 to 12.4 per cent in FY24, indicating a continued build-up of productive capacity in the economy.

The CMIE data on new investment announcements serves as an indicator for corporate capex plans. These figures represent intentions, which may or may not materialise, but they do mirror the sentiments and expectations of the companies. The overall scenario is promising, with a significant improvement compared to the pre-COVID era, despite the intentions being lower than the previous year. In FY24, the private sector announced new investment projects worth ₹23.5 lakh crore, much higher than the past five years' average of ₹14.4 lakh crore.

Despite new investment projects announced by the private sector being lower in FY24 compared to the previous year, the investment projects completed by the private sector witnessed a significant uptick to ₹3.1 lakh crore in FY24 from ₹2.7 lakh crore in FY23.

The upbeat investment environment is accompanied by increased capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector, as seen in the RBI's quarterly Order Books, Inventory and Capacity Utilisation Survey (OBICUS) for Q3 of FY24. The aggregate capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector picked up significantly from 74 per cent in Q2 to 74.7 per cent in Q3 of FY24. Manufacturing companies received a larger number of orders during this quarter as compared to the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

Rural and Urban Demand:

While investment activity remains expansive, consumption is being propelled by consistent growth in urban demand and a resurgence in rural demand, thereby contributing to India's growth in FY24. As per the data published by Nielsen IQ, the volume sales of fastmoving consumer goods (FMCG) in rural markets saw a rise of 7.6 per cent in the Q4 of FY24 on a YOY basis. For the first time in five quarters, rural FMCG demand growth outpaced urban growth.

Other indicators of rural demand also demonstrate a robust growth in consumption activity in FY24. Two and three-wheeler sales increased by 14.2 per cent in FY24, at 186.7 lakh compared to 163.5 lakh in FY23, due to enhanced model availability, new product introduction and positive market sentiments. Carrying the momentum in FY25, two-wheeler sales registered a remarkable growth of 30.8 per cent in April 2024 on a yearly basis.

The resilience of urban demand is evident in the robust growth of housing personal loans, which increased by 36.9 per cent in FY24. Sales of passenger vehicles saw a rise of 8.4 per cent in FY24, spurred by the launch of cost-effective compressed natural gas fuel options and new electric models, coupled with positive market sentiment and the provision of high-quality after-sales service.

The robust consumption demand in urban areas is also reflected in rising domestic air passenger traffic. In FY24, domestic air passenger traffic surpassed the pre-pandemic peak, driven by a growing demand for air travel. The momentum in urban demand persisted in FY25, buoyed by positive consumer sentiment and festive celebrations.

According to the RBI's consumer confidence survey for April 2024, the Current Situation Index (CSI) rose by 3.4 points to 98.5 in March 2024, the highest level since mid-2019. Consumers are quite optimistic about the general economic situation, income and spending. Consumer confidence for the year ahead improved further on the back of optimism in all parameters, such as economic situation, employment, income and spending. The Future Expectations Index (FEI) also rose further by 2.1 points to 125.2, also its highest level since mid-2019.

Inflation:

Retail inflation based on consumer price index (CPI) decreased from 4.85 per cent in March 2024 to 4.83 per cent in April 2024, marking it as the lowest rate in the past 11 months. The modest reduction in retail inflation in April 2024 was primarily due to a drop in core inflation (which excludes food, fuel and light), which reached a record low of 3.2 per cent, the lowest since January 2014. The decline in core inflation in April was largely due to reduced inflation rates in various items including clothing, footwear, housing, household goods and services, health, education, recreation, amusement, transport and communication.

Price dynamics in essential food commodities over the past two months reveal that the moderation in prices has been broad-based in March and April 2024 except for seasonal uptick in some vegetables and persistent pressure in certain pulses. Among cereals, wheat price is expected to cool down by the current wheat procurement. Edible oils prices continued to remain in a deflationary zone. Most of the remaining essential commodities witnessed the softening of price pressures assisted by the slew of administrative measures taken by the government. The inflation trend for milk continued its decline over the past year. Sugar inflation saw a notable drop compared to the trends observed in the previous four months.

Further, the sowing of summer crops is progressing favourably. As of 10 May 2024, the area sown under the summer crops expanded by 8.9 per cent compared to the corresponding period last year. Crops like rice, Shree anna coarse cereals, pulses and oilseeds contributed to the increased acreage. This would translate into augmented production.

Going forward, the inflation trajectory will be influenced by several factors. Government initiatives, including the open market sales, monitoring of stocks, import of pulses, and export restrictions, are expected to help stabilize food prices. The forecast of normal rainfall for the Southwest Monsoon 2024 bodes well for food production and could alleviate price pressure on food items. Ongoing geopolitical tensions could potentially drive-up international commodity prices and disrupt supply chains.

Exports:

India's merchandise exports in FY25 began on a positive note, recording a growth of 1.08 per cent YOY in April 2024. This comes amid marginally improved economic activity and consumer sentiment in Europe and a steady US economy. The main drivers of export growth were electronic goods, organic and inorganic chemicals, petroleum products and pharmaceuticals, which increased by 25.8 per cent, 16.8 per cent, 3.1 per cent and 7.4 per cent, respectively. Imports increased by 10.3 per cent YOY. This led to an increase in the merchandise trade deficit by 32.3 per cent YOY in April 2024.

RBI monthly data indicates India's services exports ended in FY24 by recording a growth of 4.8 per cent. Although the growth has moderated compared to the previous year, a decline in services imports led to a 13.6 per cent increase in net services trade. Preliminary estimates by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry indicate that the momentum in services exports has been carried forward into FY25 with a growth of 14.7 per cent in April 2024.

EXIM Bank of India has forecasted that merchandise exports will grow by 12.3 per cent YOY in Q1 of FY25. This is on account of sustained momentum in the services and manufacturing industries, and an expected easing of monetary tightening that spurs global demand. The report mentions that the forecast is subject to downside risks that include geopolitical and geoeconomic fragmentation and uncertain prospects in advanced economies.

Gross Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows in FY24 stood at USD 71.0 billion, compared to USD 71.4 billion in FY23. The 2024 Kearny FDI Confidence Index⁹ ranked India 4th in the EME category, underscoring its attractiveness as an FDI destination despite moderation and volatility in global capital flows.

After ending FY24 on a strong note, India witnessed a net outflow of foreign portfolio investments of USD 1.8 billion in April 2024. This is attributed to profit-booking by market participants amidst higher market valuations and uncertainty in global markets regarding interest rate cuts by major central banks.

Growing incidence of lifestyle diseases, rising demand for affordable healthcare delivery systems due to the increasing healthcare costs, technological advancements, the emergence of telemedicine, rapid health insurance penetration and government initiatives like e-health together with tax benefits and incentives are driving the healthcare market in India.

- The hospital sector in India is expected to reach INR 18,348.78 Bn by FY 2027, growing at a CAGR of 18.24%.
- The Telemedicine market is the maximum potential eHealth segment in India, which is expected to touch $5.4 Bn by 2025, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 31%
- Over the next 10 years, National Digital Health Blueprint can unlock the incremental economic value of over $200 Bn for the healthcare industry in India.

India's healthcare delivery system is categorised into two major components - public and private. The government, i.e., the public healthcare system, comprises limited secondary and tertiary care institutions in key cities and focuses on providing basic healthcare facilities in the form of Primary Healthcare Centers (PHCs) in rural areas. The private sector provides the majority of secondary, tertiary, and quaternary care institutions with a major concentration in metros, tier-I, and tier-II cities.

India's competitive advantage lies in its large pool of well-trained medical professionals. India is also cost-competitive compared to its peers in Asia and Western countries. The cost of surgery in India is about one-tenth of that in the US or Western Europe. The low cost of medical services has resulted in a rise in the country's medical tourism, attracting patients from across the world. Moreover, India has emerged as a hub for R&D activities for international players due to its relatively low cost of clinical research.

AN OVERVIEW OF INDIAN MEDICAL DEVICE SECTOR

The medical devices industry in India has been growing over the years, largely driven by proliferation of modern diagnostic and treatment solutions. In the last few years, changing lifestyles have further increased human dependence on novel medical devices. With the ongoing exigency of the COVID-19 pandemic, the pressure is mounting to build the sector like never before. The time is ripe to transition into medical devices hub.

The medical devices sector in India is an essential and integral constituent of the Indian healthcare sector, particularly for the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and management of all medical conditions, diseases, illnesses, and disabilities. It forms an important pillar in the healthcare delivery system along with healthcare providers, pharmaceuticals and health insurance industry, thereby helping achieve the key values enshrined in the National Health Policy (NHP) 2017 in terms of provision of good quality, affordable, and comprehensive healthcare to all citizens. The medical device is a multi-product sector, with the following broad classifications: (a) Electronics Equipment; (b) Implants; (c) Consumables and Disposables; (d) IVD reagents; and (e) Surgical Instruments.

The medical devices industry is a sunrise sector and has the potential of growing highest among all the sectors in the healthcare system. Various categories of devices starting from consumables to implantable medical devices are being manufactured in India.

India is counted amongst the top 20 global medical devices market and is the 4th largest medical devices market in Asia after Japan, China, and South Korea. The medical devices sector in India is still at a nascent stage. The Indian medical device market has a significant presence of multiple multi-national companies with about 80% of the sales generated from imported medical devices backed by multiple approvals, certification of accredited organizations and capacity to produce verified clinical trial record.

Recently, the Indian medical devices sector's contribution has become even more prominent as India supported the global battle against COVID-19 pandemic through the production of medical devices & diagnostic kits, e.g., Ventilators, RT-PCR kits, IR Thermometers, PPE Kits & N-95 masks.

India is one of the fastest growing markets in the global medical devices industry, expected to grow at a CAGR of 15 per cent. The current market share in global market is estimated to be 1.5%. India is the 4th largest Asian medical devices market after Japan, China, and South Korea and among the top 20 global medical devices markets in the world. Export and Import of Medical Devices over past five financial years is given in Table 1B and 1C respectively.

Market Size

India is among the top 20 markets for medical devices worldwide. The medical devices sector in India comprises large multinationals and small and mid-sized companies.

The current market size of the medical devices industry in India is estimated at $11 Bn. India is the fastest growing medical devices market amongst the emerging markets. The medical devices industry in India consists of large multinationals as well as small and medium enterprises (SMEs) growing at an unprecedented scale.

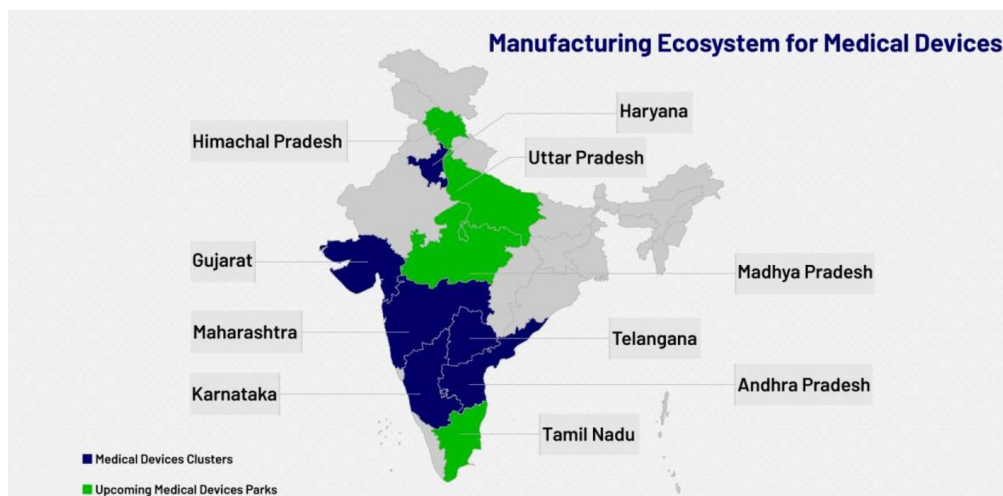

The export of medical devices sector has been growing at a CAGR of 9-11% over the last 5 years. India's expected export of medical devices will reach ~ $10 Bn by 2025.

The Government of India has taken several steps to ensure the growth of a vibrant ecosystem of medical devices manufacturing in India:

- Production Linked Incentives: Government has launched Production Linked Incentive Schemes for medical devices with financial incentives worth $400 Mn to boost domestic production

To enhance India's manufacturing capabilities by increasing investment and production in the sector and contributing to product diversification to high value goods in the pharmaceutical sector, a scheme called "Production Linked Incentive Scheme for Pharmaceuticals" has been approved by the Government of India on 24th March, 2021. The guidelines of the scheme were issued on 1st June, 2021. The scheme covers Invitro diagnostic devices amongst other pharmaceutical goods. Five (5) industry applicants have been selected under the scheme for Invitro diagnostic medical devices and the scheme provides for incentives based on their incremental sales for 6 years. The tenure of the scheme is from FY 2020-2021 to 2028-29.

- Development of Medical Devices Parks: New Medical Devices Parks upcoming in Himachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, & Tamil Nadu to create a robust ecosystem for medical device manufacturing

- Policy Support: Release of First National Medical Devices Policy, National Policy on R&D and Innovation in the Pharma-MedTech Sector in India and the Scheme for Promotion of Research and Innovation in Pharma MedTech Sector (PRIP) to boost research and innovation.

Medical device industry is an essential pillar of healthcare delivery. From diagnostic machines to surgical instruments, and from stents to prosthetics, medical devices are critical for the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of diseases. India's medical device market is valued at approximately $14 billion and is expected to grow to $30 billion by 2030.

AN OVERVIEW OF INDIAN DIAGNOSTICS INDUSTRY

In healthcare, diagnostics plays a pivotal role in monitoring, disease diagnosis, and well-being tests. The Indian diagnostics market was valued at about 13 billion U.S. dollars in 2023 and is expected to grow twice its current size by 2028. Some factors responsible for this growth are the rising number of chronic diseases, the aging population, and the increase in the adoption of government insurance programs. Moreover, an increase in health awareness among Indians has resulted in regular preventive health checks.

Furthermore, technological advancement has played a crucial role in terms of accessibility and convenience in the diagnostics market. Diagnostic services are now more accessible even at home because of innovations like telemedicine. This is especially helpful for patients who live in remote areas or have restricted mobility.

Diagnosis is a driver of patient, financial and health systems impact, and a critical enabler of universal health coverage, but it is also the weakest link in the care cascade. This is especially true in primary healthcare settings in low- and middle-income countries. These countries often lack an integrated network of laboratories used for such diagnosis; however, broad set of IVDs is available for testing patients in the primary care setting where laboratories are not available.

Over 40,000 products are available today for in vitro diagnostic testing, covering a wide range of conditions. These include traditional laboratory-based tests, with samples being sent to a central laboratory for analysis, and point-of-care tests, which can be performed near, or at, the point of patient care. Point-of-care testing can help optimize treatment decision-making, avoid referrals, improve the efficiency of care and decrease costs, especially in resource-constrained settings where laboratory infrastructure is weak.

Diagnostic tests are increasingly important around the world as a first defence against the spread of many diseases. The fight against tuberculosis, for example, relies on modern diagnostics as a prerequisite for the early, rapid and accurate detection of the disease and changes in drug resistance used in its treatment.

In vitro diagnostics are also the first line of defence against the possibility of the re-emergence of eradicated diseases. Smallpox, for example, is unlikely to reappear; however, WHO maintains a network of partnerships around the world dedicated to the rapid diagnosis and containment of any potential cases.

Segmentation of the Diagnostics Sector

India's diagnostics market is divided into various segments which reflect the sector's diversity. Based on the diagnostic test type, the two major segments of the market are Pathology and Radiology. The Pathology market was valued at about USD 8 billion, with the clinical pathology segment accounting for the highest market size in India. The Radiology market was worth over USD 5 billion, with X-rays accounting for the greater parts of the market.

The average cost of such diagnostic tests in India is lower in comparison to other developed countries. The cheapest are urine tests, valued on average at just over two U.S. dollars, and the most expensive tests are full-body MRIs, costing more than 380 U.S. dollars. However, this remains a steep price to pay for many domestic patients.

Competitiveness of Market Players

The diagnostic market in India consists of both unorganized and well-established players. However, the diagnostic market is fragmented and includes standalone centers, private hospitals, and government hospital laboratories. Due to the market fragmentation, the capacity, quality, and scalability of labs may be at risk. However, this fragmentation provides an opportunity for newer business models to evolve. For instance, innovation and competitive pricing in the diagnostics sector are constantly being driven by the entry of new pharmaceutical firms, hospitals, telemedicine providers, and online aggregators. About three-quarters of the market is based in the urban region, leaving companies to expand to other regions in India. In recent years, this has led to establishing diagnostic services in tier 2 and 3 cities with access to advanced technologies and affordable infrastructure. These cities provide a feasible frontier for diagnostic companies due to the growing population and varying healthcare needs. Besides, the government is prioritizing regulations to improve market efficiency in the near future.

(Source: <https://www.statista.com/topics/12366/diagnostics-market-in-india/#topicOverview>)

Diagnostics revenue to rise 10-11% this fiscal 2025 on expanding reach

Revenues of diagnostic companies are poised for a 10-11% growth in fiscal 2025, driven by a mix of higher number of patients and improving revenue per patient. This comes on the back of an estimated ~8% growth last fiscal. While geographic expansion by established players into Tier 2/3/4 cities will drive higher patient volumes, growing demand for comprehensive preventive health packages will lead to higher realization per patient.

A study of 10 diagnostics companies (including five pan-India players¹), with aggregate estimated revenue of ~Rs 6,700 crore previous fiscal, indicates as much.

Further, increasing health awareness post pandemic has also provided a fillip to preventive health checkups. To facilitate the same, diagnostic companies are bundling various tests into curated wellness packages tailored to different genders, age groups and consumer profiles. This has enabled them to charge a premium, leading to an increase in spending per patient. Notably the share of this segment is expected to reach ~22-23% this fiscal up from ~18-20% in fiscal 2024. In fact, this sustained rise in share of wellness tests (~15% in fiscal 2023) contributed to the growth in revenues of diagnostics players last fiscal, even as patient volumes remained flattish. To be sure, this followed a degrowth in revenues registered in fiscal 2023, owing to a sharp fall in number of covid and allied tests. Continuing high competition from hospital chains and e-pharmacies necessitated higher marketing spends by diagnostic companies to protect their market share, leading to moderation in operating margins to pre-Covid level of 24-25% in fiscal 2024, from a decadal high of ~29% during the pandemic.

That said, with the expansion of collection centres largely being franchise-led, annual capital expenditure (capex) is expected to remain at fiscal 2024's level of ~Rs 800 crore, and mainly be incurred for lab equipment. Capex is likely to be funded through internal accruals. This will ensure balance sheets remain strong, supporting credit profiles of diagnostic players. Further, interest coverage and the ratio of debt to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA) of diagnostic companies are seen healthy at ~14 times and ~0.30 times respectively this fiscal, broadly similar to levels in fiscal 2024.

In-Vitro Diagnostics-Indian Market

India In-Vitro Diagnostics Market size is estimated at USD 1.71 billion in 2024, and is expected to reach USD 2.34 billion by 2029, at a CAGR of 6.58% during the forecast period (2024-2029).

COVID-19 significantly impacted the growth of the market studied. The spread of the virus increased the demand for in-vitro diagnostic kits and devices for rapid and accurate diagnosis. The research laboratories and major companies manufacturing sites were closed during the initial phase, and this is expected to have impacted the market for in vitro diagnostics (IVDs) in India. However, the increasing number of chronic diseases along with widened research and development for the application of IVDs for better and quick diagnostics increased recently in India. For instance, in May 2022, Cipla Limited started the commercialization of the 'RT-Direct' multiplex COVID-19 RT-PCR Test kit in India, in partnership with Genes2Me Pvt. Ltd. This kit is validated at the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) approved Centre. Moreover, a press release published by Clinical Trials Arena (CTA) in September 2021 mentioned that chronic illness among the Indian population increased during the Covid-19 lockdown. Physical inactivity during the lockdown led to a rise in obesity, and a subsequent rise in chronic illnesses, such as type 2 diabetes (T2D) and endometrial cancer in India. Thus, the increased cases of chronic diseases in India during the pandemic phase are anticipated to generate demand for IVDs over the forecast period.

Factors for Growth in Indian In-Vitro Diagnostics

The major factors driving the growth of the Indian in-vitro diagnostics market are the high prevalence of chronic diseases, increasing use of point-of-care (POC) diagnostics, and rising awareness and acceptance of personalized medicine and companion diagnostics.

CULTURE MEDIA

The manufacturing process of culture media—a fundamental component in microbiology and cell biology for growing microorganisms, cells, and tissues—requires meticulous attention to detail and adherence to standardized protocols. Here’s an overview of the typical stages involved in the production of culture media:

Manufacturing process flow chart of culture media

1. Research and Development

- Media Formulation: Scientists and microbiologists determine the composition of culture media based on the specific requirements of the microorganisms or cells to be cultured. This includes selecting appropriate nutrients, pH indicators, and agar (if solid media is required).
- Test and Optimization: Potential formulations are tested for efficacy, and adjustments are made to optimize growth conditions (pH, osmolarity, nutrient composition).

2. Sourcing Raw Materials

- Ingredient Selection: Ingredients such as peptones, yeast extract, agar, glucose, salts, and supplements are sourced. It is crucial to use high-quality, pharmaceutical-grade raw materials.
- Supplier Qualification: Suppliers are assessed and qualified to ensure reliability and consistency in the quality of the raw materials.

3. Preparation of Culture Media

- Weighing and Mixing: Ingredients are weighed and mixed in large batches according to the formulated recipe. This mixing can occur in stainless steel tanks to prevent contamination.
- Heating: The mixture is often heated to dissolve solid components completely. For specific media that require sterilization, careful temperature control is vital to avoid degradation of heat-sensitive components.

4. Sterilization

- Autoclaving: The prepared media is sterilized using autoclaving (steam at high pressure and temperature) to eliminate potential contaminants. This step is critical to ensure the media supports the growth of only the desired microorganisms or cells.
- Alternative Sterilization Methods: For heat-sensitive components, methods such as filtration or chemical sterilization may be employed instead.

5. Cooling and Handling

- Controlled Cooling: After sterilization, the media is allowed to cool under controlled conditions to prevent contamination and to ensure even temperature distribution.
- Agar Solidification (if applicable): For solid media containing agar, the cooled mixture is poured into Petri dishes or test tubes, allowing it to solidify.

6. Quality Control (QC) Testing

- Microbiological Testing: Samples from each batch undergo QC testing for sterility and growth performance. This includes inoculating the media with indicator organisms to assess growth characteristics.
- Physicochemical Testing: Tests for pH, osmolarity, and nutrient concentration are conducted to ensure formulation standards are met.

7. Packaging

- Aseptic Packaging: Culture media are packaged in sterile containers, such as bottles or prefilled Petri dishes, in a sterile environment to prevent contamination during storage and transport.
- Labeling: Each product is accurately labeled with batch numbers, nutritional information, storage conditions, and expiration dates.

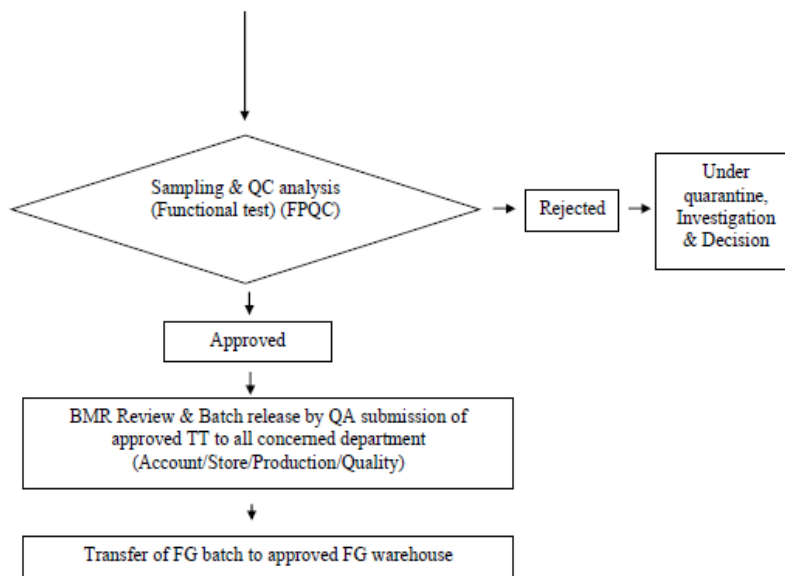

8. Storage and Distribution

- Storage Conditions: Packaged media should be stored at appropriate temperatures and conditions (e.g., refrigeration for liquid media, room temperature for solid media) to maintain stability and performance.
- Distribution: The media is shipped to laboratories, research facilities, and clinical settings, ensuring that conditions suitable for preservation are maintained during transit.

The Transfer of Property Act, 1882 governs the transfer of property between individuals and legal entities, including pharmaceutical companies, within India. It covers various modes of property transfer such as sale, lease, mortgage, and gift. For pharmaceutical companies acquiring land for operations, such as setting up a manufacturing plant, compliance with this Act is essential when buying or leasing property from individuals, private entities, or government agencies. Key provisions include the sale deed, which is the primary legal document transferring ownership from seller to buyer, and provisions for mortgage and lease, allowing companies to mortgage property to raise capital or lease land for a fixed period. Additionally, easements, which provide rights to access and use property (such as for water lines or access roads), are also governed by this Act.

Land Acquisition Act, 2013 (Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act)

The Land Acquisition Act governs the process by which the government acquires land for public purposes or private companies, primarily for industrial or infrastructure development. It emphasizes fair compensation to landowners and the resettlement and rehabilitation of affected families. For pharmaceutical companies acquiring land through this process, compliance with the Act is crucial. Compensation is determined based on the market value of the land, with additional solatium included, ensuring fairness. Moreover, companies must engage in the rehabilitation and resettlement of displaced individuals or communities. In private projects, the Act requires the consent of 80% of landowners and involves a public hearing to ensure community participation in the acquisition process.

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) Regulations

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) plays a significant role in controlling land ownership and allotment, especially for commercial and industrial purposes in Delhi. Pharmaceutical companies looking to acquire land for industrial use, such as setting up manufacturing plants, must navigate the DDA's procedures for land allotment. The DDA regulates land use, and companies are required to apply through formal processes, ensuring that the land is allocated in accordance with Delhi's master plans and zoning regulations. These processes help to streamline the acquisition of land and ensure that it is used appropriately for industrial development.

The Registration Act, 1908

It was enacted to provide public notice of documents that affect the transfer of interest in immovable property, ensuring transparency and preventing fraud. Its primary purpose is to conserve evidence, assure title, and publish documents related to property transactions. Unregistered documents affecting property are not legally valid or admissible as evidence, except in cases involving specific performance or part performance under the Transfer of Property Act, 1882. Registration of such documents, while necessary for legal recognition, does not guarantee the title to the land, which must be verified through other means. Registered property records can be inspected for evidence of transactions.

The Indian Stamp Act, 1899

It governs the payment of stamp duty on instruments or documents that evidence the transfer, creation, or extinguishment of any right, title, or interest in immovable property. The Act prescribes specific stamp duty rates, detailed in Schedule I, for various instruments. However, under the Constitution of India, individual states have the authority to set or modify stamp duty rates for documents executed within their jurisdiction. If an instrument liable to stamp duty under the Act is not duly stamped, it cannot be admitted as evidence of the transaction. The Act also empowers certain authorities to impound unstamped or insufficiently stamped documents and impose penalties. Instruments not properly stamped may be validated by paying a penalty, which can be up to 10 times the duty payable on such documents.

The decline in sales of manufactured goods, which decreased by 64.24% from ₹494.33 lakhs in fiscal 2022 to ₹176.77 lakhs in fiscal 2023, can be primarily attributed to the unique circumstances of fiscal 2022. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the company

As the pandemic subsided and the demand for COVID-19 testing kits normalized in fiscal 2023, the company's product mix shifted away from pandemic-related goods. This shift, along with the natural tapering of extraordinary demand, led to a reduction in revenue from manufactured goods. Furthermore, SEBI vide press release bearing number 12/2023 has approved the proposal for reducing the time period for listing of shares in public issue from existing 6 working days to 3 working days from the date of the closure of the issue. PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UPI FOR BIDS BY RETAIL INDIVIDUAL BIDDERS AS PER THE UPI CIRCULAR

SEBI has issued circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2018/138 dated November 1, 2018, circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/50 dated April 3, 2019, circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/76 dated June 28, 2019, circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/85 dated July 26, 2019, circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 08, 2019 and circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 (collectively the “UPI Circulars”) in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIBs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six working days to up to three working days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circular proposes to introduce and implement the UPI payment mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Retail Individual had the option to submit the Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six working days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019 and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Subsequently, it was decided to extend the timeline for implementation of Phase II until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount is continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form by RIBs through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six working days during this phase.

Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 (“T+3 Notification”). In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

The Issue is being made under Phase III of the UPI (on a mandatory basis).

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using the UPI Mechanism. The Issuers will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Applicants into the UPI payment mechanism.

For further details, refer to the General Information Document available on the websites of the Stock Exchanges and the Book Running Lead Manager.

Pursuant to the SEBI UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the SEBI UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked not later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – issue Book Running Lead Manager will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using the UPI Mechanism. The Issuers will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Applicants into the UPI payment mechanism.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”).

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The Government of India proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI Policy once every year and therefore, the FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

The RBI also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year. Presently, FDI in India is being governed by Master Circular on Foreign Investment dated July 01, 2015, as updated from time to time by RBI and Master Direction– Foreign Investment in India (updated up to March 08, 2019). - (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI policy; and Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction / purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Rules.
